Case Summary

On May 16, 2019, while providing a telephone statement in regard to CCRB Case # 201904156, § 87(2)(b) reported the following complaint to the CCRB.

Between May 16, 2019 and May 24, 2019, § 87(2)(b) was called three times and one unreturned letter was mailed to him. By phone on May 16, 2019, § 87(2)(b) scheduled an interview appointment at the CCRB for May 20, 2019. On May 18, 2019, § 87(2)(b) was sent a text message reminder of his appointment. § 87(2)(b) failed to appear for his first interview appointment and did not call ahead to cancel or reschedule. By phone on May 24, 2019, § 87(2)(b) stated that he had missed his appointment because he had forgotten about it. § 87(2)(b) rescheduled his missed interview appointment for May 29, 2019. On May 27, 2019, § 87(2)(b) was sent a text message reminder of his appointment. § 87(2)(b) did not appear for his second interview appointment and did not call ahead to cancel or reschedule.

While providing his telephone statement on May 16, 2019, § 87(2)(b) stated that his friend § 87(2)(b) was a victim in this complaint. § 87(2)(b) stated he did not presently have contact information for § 87(2)(b). The undersigned investigator conducted searches for § 87(2)(b) in BADS, CLEAR, CTS, DMV, LexisNexis, Cole Directory, WhitePages, and FamilyTreeNow. Between June 5, 2019 and June 14, 2019, up to five calls were placed to the three phone numbers obtained by database searches and voicemail messages were left for § 87(2)(b) on each occasion when the option was available. A female answered one of these phone calls and stated that she did not know anyone by § 87(2)(b)'s name. Another phone number was not in service each time it was called.

Between June 5, 2019 and June 17, 2019, one email was sent to the one email address and three letters were sent to the three mailing addresses obtained from database searches, all informing § 87(2)(b) that he needed to contact the CCRB in order to pursue his complaint. The email was returned by the server as undeliverable. None of the letters were returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable. No response was received in response to the letters.

On June 17, 2019, a search of the NYC Department of Correction Inmate Lookup Service indicated that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) are not currently incarcerated.
