DISCIPLINARY MATTER(S)

After CCRB investigations stemming out of unrelated case(s), the following recommendations were found by the assigned CCRB investigator(s) for PO Luis Guevara:

Arising out of an incident that occurred on September 16th, 2018, the investigator cited one count of "Other Misconduct," in that the officer used his body camera improperly.

Police Officer Luis Guevara is also under investigation by the CCRB for the following allegations:

Arising out of an incident that occurred on March 3rd, 2020, the pending allegations are: 1-Abuse of Authority-In that the officer allegedly searched premises and 2-Abuse of Authority-In that the officer allegedly entered premises.

Police Officer Luis Guevara has a substantiated IAB charge of the following specifications:

On August 3rd, 2020, while assigned to the 115th precinct, Police Officer Luis Guevara failed to activate his body worn camera.

This officer was also the subject of allegations that were found to be, "unsubstantiated" following an investigation. The District Attorney is not in actual possession of any documentation supporting these allegations and are informed by representatives of the NYPD and CCRB that they are currently unable to provide such documents for CPL §245.20 disclosure. Under our discovery obligation defined in CPL §245.20(1)(k), we disclose only allegations that are either pending or have been substantiated. There is no controlling authority that requires the disclosure of an unsubstantiated allegation, but we bring their existence to your attention pursuant to the presumption of openness required under CPL §245.20(7).

Please note that additional information regarding this officer's CCRB disciplinary history may be available at <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>.
