Results of Investigation

Civilian Statements

Complainant /Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- On the date of the incident, § 87(2)(b) was § 87(2)(b) old. She is a black female, stands 5'2" tall, weighs 190 pounds and has brown hair and brown eyes.

CCRB Statement:

On February 13, 2013, § 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 8A - D). Her statement is summarized below.

On February 1, 2013, at approximately 6:30 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was in her apartment, located at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. Her husband, § 87(2)(b) and her children, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b), aged § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) respectively, were asleep in the apartment. § 87(2)(b) was going to take a nap, and all the lights in the house were off. § 87(2)(b) heard the doorbell ring, walked to the door and looked through the peephole. She saw a black male in his late 40's, 5'6" tall, with a muscular build and wearing plainclothes, identified via the investigation as PO Elisha Duncan from the 46th Precinct, standing outside. PO Duncan asked if someone named "§ 87(2)(b)" was home, and § 87(2)(b) told him that no one named "§ 87(2)(b)" lived there. She walked away and PO Duncan rang the bell again. § 87(2)(b) came to the door and PO Duncan said he had a package for § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) said nobody by that name lived there and walked away from the door again. PO Duncan rang the doorbell and pounded on the door for about ten to fifteen minutes, at which point § 87(2)(b) woke up and opened the door.

Four plainclothes officers pushed past § 87(2)(b) who attempted to block their entry into the house. They did not identify themselves as police. PO Duncan got past § 87(2)(b) and walked into the hallway, which led into the living room. § 87(2)(b) who could not see because the lights were off, pushed PO Duncan. § 87(2)(b) felt a bulletproof vest and yelled to § 87(2)(b) that the men were police. She asked the officers to identify themselves by showing their badges. One of the officers instructed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to move back, and she repeated her request about ten more times. One of the officers turned the lights on and § 87(2)(b) could see all four officers. A white, male officer in his late 50's, with a stocky build and wearing plainclothes, identified via the investigation as Sgt. Franklin Bohn from the 46th Precinct, and a white male officer, 5'6" tall, wearing plainclothes, identified via the investigation as PO Damon Valentino from the 46th Precinct, were in the kitchen with § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) and the police yelled back and forth for approximately five minutes at which point Sgt. Bohr and PO Valentino flashed their badges and put them back before § 87(2)(b) could obtain their information. At no point did the police verbally identify themselves.

§ 87(2)(b) asked what was happening and Sgt. Bohr told her and § 87(2)(b) to calm down. § 87(2)(b) repeated her question, and Sgt. Bohr instructed them to sit down on the couch. § 87(2)(b) did not sit down, and Sgt. Bohr and PO Valentino stood on either side of § 87(2)(b) and escorted him into the living room. They asked him to sit down and he told them that the couch was too low for him because of his recent knee surgery. Sgt. Bohr told him to sit down anyway and Sgt. Bohr and PO Valentino threw § 87(2)(b) face first onto the couch. One of the officers put a knee to his back, and an officer, described by § 87(2)(b) as a Hispanic male, 5'4" to 5'5" tall, wearing plainclothes, identified via the investigation as PO Ryan Bracconeri from the 46th Precinct, placed handcuffs on § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) initially resisted by keeping his hands apart, and it took about five minutes to handcuff him. The officers sat § 87(2)(b) down on the couch and § 87(2)(b) sat down on another sofa in the living room.

§ 87(2)(b) stood up and asked to see the search warrant. Sgt. Bohr informed her that she did not need to see it, and she said that she did not consent to a search. Sgt. Bohr said that she was being hostile, and told PO Duncan to handcuff her. PO Duncan rear-cuffed § 87(2)(b) and pushed her back onto the sofa. Sgt. Bohr asked if there was anyone else in the house and § 87(2)(b) answered that her children were asleep in their rooms. Sgt. Bohr and PO Valentino went into their rooms and brought them into the living room.

Sgt. Bohr showed § 87(2)(b) a photograph of her eldest son, § 87(2)(b), whom she identified to him. Sgt. Bohr asked if § 87(2)(b) knew where he was, and she said that he was out with friends. § 87(2)(b) asked if he was in trouble and Sgt. Bohr replied that § 87(2)(b) should be quiet. § 87(2)(b) yelled at the officer not talk to his wife like that. PO Duncan stood behind the couch and PO Bracconeri stood in the middle of the room, and they watched § 87(2)(b) and her family in the living room. Sgt. Bohr and PO Valentino went to § 87(2)(b) bedroom and searched it.

Sgt. Bohr finished the search and came out to the living room. § 87(2)(b) asked the officers individually for their names, and PO Duncan and Sgt. Bohr provided their last names, but PO Valentino and PO Bracconeri did not. Sgt. Bohr took § 87(2)(b) into § 87(2)(b) bedroom and asked her a series of questions about § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) asked why they had searched the apartment and Sgt. Bohr showed her a piece of folded, white paper with her address written on top. Sgt. Bohr told her that it was his warrant and closed it quickly. § 87(2)(b) said that she was not able to read it, and Sgt. Bohr said that she did not have to read it and put it away. § 87(2)(b) was then taken back into the living room and § 87(2)(b) was brought to the bedroom.

Sgt. Bohr brought § 87(2)(b) to the living room, and the officers searched the rest of the apartment, with the exception of the living room and the kitchen. Sgt. Bohr informed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) that nothing had been found in the course of the search and the officers were leaving. § 87(2)(b) asked for a copy of the search warrant and Sgt. Bohr said that he would bring a copy of the search warrant after he had printed another copy. PO Bracconeri removed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)'s handcuffs, and the officers left. Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) ever received a copy of the search warrant.

Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- On the date of the incident, § 87(2)(b) was § 87(2)(b) old. He is a black male, stands 6'0" tall, weighs 213 pounds and has black hair and brown eyes.

CCRB Statement:

On April 10, 2013, § 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 9A - C). § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) corroborated the date and time of the search, the occupants of the apartment at the time of the search, and § 87(2)(b)'s account of the interaction at the door. After five to ten minutes § 87(2)(b) got up, walked to the door and opened it.

Four individuals, later identified as four police officers, entered the apartment. The officers did not identify themselves or display their badges. An officer, described by § 87(2)(b) as a black male in his late 30's or early 40's, 5'8" to 5'10" tall, weighing 210 to 215 pounds, wearing plainclothes, identified via the investigation as PO Elisha Duncan from the 46th Precinct, pushed past § 87(2)(b) and moved to secure § 87(2)(b). Another officer, described by § 87(2)(b) as a white or Hispanic male in his late 20's or early 30's, 5'8" to 5'9" tall, with black hair, pushed § 87(2)(b) into the kitchen, where § 87(2)(b) noticed he was wearing a bulletproof vest. (Despite the fact that the description of this officer most closely fits PO Bracconeri, the investigation determined that it was PO Damon Valentino from the 46th Precinct.) PO Valentino patted § 87(2)(b) down and did not find any weapons. § 87(2)(b) heard § 87(2)(b) scream for the officers to identify themselves.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were brought to the living room and one of the officers turned on the lights. Two of the officers pulled the badges that hung around their necks from under their shirt, and then put them back. One of the officers told § 87(2)(b) to sit down on the couch, which he refused to do because the officers did not identify themselves to his satisfaction. The officers told § 87(2)(b) to sit down again, and when he refused, PO Valentino and another officer, identified via the investigation as Sgt. Bohr, moved to restrain him. § 87(2)(b) physically resisted by not letting the officers pull his hands behind his back, and moved away from the officers. § 87(2)(b) struggled until he saw § 87(2)(b) give him a look that he interpreted as "stop resisting." § 87(2)(b) stopped resisting and the officers pulled his hands behind his back and handcuffed him. The officers grabbed him and one officer used their knee to push § 87(2)(b) into the living room sofa while they handcuffed him.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) asked Sgt. Bohr to see the warrant. Sgt. Bohr took it out of his pocket, showed § 87(2)(b) the address portion of the warrant, and then put it away. Officers then took § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) from their bedroom and brought them into the living room. An officer searched § 87(2)(b) room and Sgt. Bohr took § 87(2)(b) into § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) bedroom and asked him questions about § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Bohr brought § 87(2)(b) back to the living room.

Officers handcuffed § 87(2)(b) then brought her into § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) bedroom, where Sgt. Bohr questioned her. § 87(2)(b) asked the officers in the living room to provide their names. The officers removed their shields from below their clothing, and then putting them away again, except for an officer who § 87(2)(b) described as a white male in his late 30's to mid 40's, 5'9" to 5'10" tall, weighing 210 to 215 pounds, who left his shield visible. (Despite the fact that the description of this officer most closely fits PO Valentino, the investigation determined that it was PO Bracconeri from the 46th Precinct.) Officers went into § 87(2)(b) room and searched it.

After the search § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) again asked the officers for their names. Sgt. Bohr and PO Duncan provided their names, but PO Bracconeri and PO Valentino did not. PO Bracconeri and PO Valentino were in the room when these requests were made, and PO Bracconeri was standing right next to Sgt. Bohr when Sgt. Bohr provided his name. The officers then left the apartment.

NYPD Statements:

Subject Officer: SGT. FRANKLIN BOHR

Memo Book (encl. 10A - B)

At 6:10 p.m., Sgt. Bohr conducted reconnaissance of § 87(2)(b). At 6:20 p.m. he entered the apartment on a search warrant and warrants for the subject (not listed). At 7:00 p.m. he recorded negative results for the search.

Officer DD5 (encl. 11)

On February 1, 2013, at approximately 5:45 p.m., Sgt. Bohr executed valid Bronx Supreme Court search warrant § 87(2)(b) at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, within the confines of the 46th Precinct. The details are as follows: “The subject of the warrant, § 87(2)(b) (NYSID # § 87(2)(b)) was not home during the search and has 2 open Bronx south warrants at the time.”

CCRB Statement:

On August 30, 2013, Sgt. Bohr was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 12A - C). His statement is summarized below.

At approximately 5:45 p.m. on February 1, 2013, Sgt. Bohr arrived at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx to execute a search warrant. PO Duncan knocked on the door and § 87(2)(b) opened the door shortly thereafter. Sgt. Bohr approached § 87(2)(b) at the threshold, identified himself as a police officer and said that they said they had a search warrant. Sgt. Bohr said that he had his shield with him at the time, but was not sure if it was visible. They entered the apartment without any resistance. The officers moved to secure the scene because there were children present and the subject had open arrest warrants and the officers did not know what he was capable of doing.

There was verbal resistance from § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) who yelled and questioned the officers for being there, and the officers had to restrain them. Sgt. Bohr handcuffed § 87(2)(b) but was unsure about whether § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed. § 87(2)(b) was placed in his bedroom with the door open and § 87(2)(b) was in the living room of the apartment while the officers searched § 87(2)(b) room. The officers found the children in their rooms and brought them into the living room.

After the apartment was secured, Sgt. Bohr showed the search warrant to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). One of the adults asked Sgt. Bohr for his name and badge number verbally and he provided it. He did not recall if the request was specific to him or if it was directed at all the officers present. He did not recall whether § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) requested PO Duncan or PO Valentino’s names. Sgt. Bohr told § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) should turn himself in, and he showed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) the warrant.

Subject Officer: PO DAMON VALENTINO

- On the date of the incident, PO Valentino was § 87(2)(b) old. He is a white male officer who stands 6’0” tall, weighs 210 pounds and has brown hair and green eyes.

- PO Valentino worked from 9:37 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., was assigned as Assistant Field Intelligence Officer for the 46th Precinct, worked with Sergeant Franklin Bohr, was in plainclothes and was assigned to a black, unmarked Chevrolet Impala.

Memo Book

PO Valentino had no memo book entries regarding this incident, § 87(2)(g)

CCRB Statement:

On October 1, 2013, PO Valentino was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 13A - C). His statement is summarized below.

On February 1, 2013, at 5:45 p.m., PO Valentino executed a search warrant at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx with Sgt. Bohr, PO Duncan and PO Bracconeri. PO Duncan knocked on the door to the apartment and § 87(2)(b) answered the door, which was done in lieu of breaking down the door because of concerns about children in the apartment. They identified themselves as police officers and entered the apartment. They encountered no physical resistance, however, § 87(2)(b) made “belligerent” verbal comments. PO Valentino said § 87(2)(b) refused to sit down on the couch, and that he was a potential threat to the officers’ safety. He was rear handcuffed and placed in the living room. PO Valentino did not handcuff § 87(2)(b) and did not recall who did so. He did not recall whether § 87(2)(b) resisted, or whether § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed.

PO Valentino searched § 87(2)(b) bedroom. Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) asked PO Valentino for his name or badge number, and he did not hear them ask the other officers for their names or badge numbers. All of the officers had their shields visible during the incident.

Subject Officer: PO RYAN BRACCONERI

- On the date of the incident, PO Bracconeri was § 87(2)(b) old. He is a white male, stands 5’8” tall, weighs 195 pounds and has brown hair and brown eyes.
- On February 1, 2013, PO Bracconeri was initially assigned to the 46th Precinct conditions, but was asked by FIO Sgt. Franklin Bohr to assist him in executing a search warrant. PO Bracconeri’s assigned tour was from 5:30 a.m. to 2:05 p.m. He worked with Sgt. Bohr, PO Duncan and PO Valentino, and was dressed in plainclothes.

Memo Book (encl. 14A - B)

PO Bracconeri had no memo book entries regarding this incident.

CCRB Statement:

On February 4, 2014, PO Bracconeri was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 15A - C). His statement is summarized below.

On February 1, 2013, Sgt. Bohr asked PO Bracconeri to assist in the execution of a search warrant. At approximately 5:45 p.m., PO Bracconeri, Sgt. Bohr, PO Duncan and PO Valentino executed a search warrant at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. One of the occupants opened the door, and the officers searched the apartment. PO Bracconeri did not recall whether the officers met physical resistance on entry to the apartment.

PO Bracconeri corroborated that § 87(2)(b) and some children were present in the apartment. PO Bracconeri said that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were upset that the officers entered the apartment, however, he did not recall if they were physically restrained, or whether any officer used physical force against them.

PO Bracconeri stood by the doorway of the apartment as security for the entirety of the search. He did not witness the search of the rooms and did not recall which rooms were searched. PO Bracconeri denied that any civilian asked him for his name or badge number, and did not recall whether the civilians asked any of the officers for their name.

Witness Officer: PO ELISHA DUNCAN

- On the date of the incident, PO Duncan was § 87(2)(b) old. He is a black male, stands 5'6" tall, weighs 175 pounds, and has black hair and brown eyes.
- PO Duncan was assigned to 46th Precinct Conditions, worked from 9:00 a.m. to 6:05 p.m., worked alone, was on foot and was dressed in plainclothes.

Memo Book (encl. 16)

At 5:30 p.m. PO Duncan had his post changed from Conditions to performing reconnaissance and executing a search warrant.

CCRB Statement:

On June 20, 2013, PO Elisha Duncan was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 17A - B). The following is his statement.

On February 1, 2013, at 5:30 p.m. Sgt. Bohr asked PO Duncan to assist in the execution of the search warrant at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. PO Duncan knocked on the door of the apartment, and spoke with an individual inside through the door. He did not recall what he said, whether he issued any commands to open the door or if he identified himself as a police officer. PO Duncan did not recall who opened the door or whether anyone blocked the doorway. The officers entered the apartment and encountered no resistance. PO Duncan displayed his badge and said "police" as he entered, but did not recall whether or not the other officers did so.

The officers entered the living room and gathered the civilians there. Sgt. Bohr and another officer searched the bedroom of the search warrant subject, § 87(2)(b) and PO Duncan stood watch over the civilians. He did not recall whether any civilians were handcuffed during the search and did not recall the scope of the search. The officers search the apartment for approximately ten minutes, and did not find any drugs or weapons.

At some point during the search, § 87(2)(b) requested PO Duncan's name and shield number, which he provided. He did not recall whether any other officers were present at the time, or whether § 87(2)(b) asked any of the other officers for their names. Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: Sgt. Franklin Bohr entered and searched § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx.

It is undisputed that multiple officers from the 46th Precinct, supervised by Sgt. Bohr, entered and searched § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)'s apartment, located at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, pursuant to the temporal and spatial restrictions enumerated in a valid search warrant, Bronx County Search Warrant Number § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(g)

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: PO Damon Valentino refused to provide his name to

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)

Allegation C – Abuse of Authority: PO Ryan Bracconeri refused to provide his name to

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) alleged that they repeatedly asked PO Valentino and PO Bracconeri for their names throughout the course of the search warrant execution.

According to PO Valentino and PO Bracconeri, neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) asked them for their names or badge numbers, and they did not hear § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) ask the other officers for their names or badge numbers. Sgt. Bohr and PO Duncan individually provided their names to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) however, they did not recall whether § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) asked PO Valentino or PO Bracconeri for their names.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: Sgt. Franklin Bohr refused to show a search warrant to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) said that she asked to see the search warrant and Sgt. Bohr showed her a piece of paper, but that she could not read it because he did it so quickly. § 87(2)(b) said that Sgt. Bohr showed him a piece of paper that had their address on it.

Sgt. Bohr said that he showed the search warrant to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) during the search warrant execution.
