Case Summary

On October 24, 2018, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the Internal Affairs Bureau, on behalf of her son, § 87(2)(b) 17 years old at the time of the incident. It was referred to the CCRB, where it was received on November 1, 2018.

From November 2, 2018 to November 29, 2018, § 87(2)(b) was called seven times at the number she provided. § 87(2)(b) answered three of these calls, but stated that § 87(2)(b) could not speak at each of the times that she was contacted, and could not be contacted via his personal cell phone. On November 29, 2018, § 87(2)(b) provided a phone statement and scheduled a field interview for December 4, 2018. § 87(2)(b) confirmed that he could not be contacted via his cell phone because his phone was broken, and confirmed that the best method of contacting him was via his mother's phone number. Upon determining that a conflict existed at the scheduled interview time for December 4, 2018, § 87(2)(b) was called four additional times to reschedule the interview. Voicemail messages were left during each of these calls, and letters were sent to § 87(2)(b)'s address. § 87(2)(b) did not respond to any of these calls or any of the letters. On December 10, 2018, a voicemail message for § 87(2)(b) requested that he contact the CCRB by December 13, 2018 if § 87(2)(b) wanted to pursue his complaint. As of December 27, 2018, none of the letters sent to § 87(2)(b)'s address have been returned by USPS as undeliverable, and § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB.
