

1. Rivera v. City of New York, et al., 303456/2012, which settled in 2013, ending litigation in Bronx County Supreme Court.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On May 31, 2018, Jan Folvarsky had a substantiated departmental investigation for an invoice discrepancy, and for an incomplete or inaccurate property clerk invoice. He was issued verbal instructions.
2. On October 9, 2018, Jan Folvarsky also had a substantiated departmental investigation for minor procedural violations. No disciplinary action was taken.
