

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY
RICHMOND COUNTY

MICHAEL E. MCMAHON
DISTRICT ATTORNEY

February 7, 2020

With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure: the People are aware that during the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Sergeant Daniel Sorito has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in two state civil lawsuits.

1. Peter Arroyo v. City of New York, et.al., 150642/15 – filed in Richmond County Supreme Court, it was discontinued with prejudice and without costs or disbursements to any party on April 27, 2018, ending litigation.
2. Olivia Jordan v. City of New York, et. al., 102642/12 – filed in Richmond County Supreme Court from an incident on November 13, 2011, the subject of which was a motor vehicle accident.

On or about April 22, 2016, Sergeant Sorito violated sections of the patrol guide, in that he failed to identify himself as a member of service to on-duty police officers during two separate off-duty incidents. In connection with these infractions, he forfeited two vacation days.

On September 10, 2018, Sergeant Sorito lost and failed to safeguard department equipment, specifically a parking permit. He received a Schedule A command discipline for this infraction.
