With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time he has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Detective Vincent Aguilo has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in a federal civil lawsuit.

1. John DeGroat v. City of New York, et.al., 14 CV 03991 – filed in the Eastern District of New York, , settled for $15,000 in 2015, without any admission of fault or liability by the defendants.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of Detective Vincent Aguilo's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On October 7, 2011, Detective Vincent Aguilo had a substantiated departmental investigation for an incomplete memo book and for failing to safeguard a prisoner's
