DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. On June 27, 2019, at approximately 1:05 AM near East 8th Street between Broadway and Lafayette Street in New York County, a male got into a dispute with an employee of Kmart, who was attempting to park a truck at the time. The male called 911 and reported that the truck struck him and the employee assaulted him. Multiple officers, including Police Officer Ryan White, responded to the scene. The male alleges that various officers, including Officer White refused, to provide their shield numbers. The male also alleges that an officer poked him multiple times after he asked why he could not press charges against the employee. The responding police officers, including Officer White, failed to activate their body worn cameras. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) noted the following misconduct: On June 29, 2019, Ryan White failed to properly use his Body Worn Camera in the manner required by the Patrol Guide.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on October 30, 2014, Ryan White failed to appear in TVB Court.
