Synopsis

On June 28, 2006, § 87(2)(b) filed a complaint with the CCRB regarding an incident that occurred earlier that day. At approximately 8:20 a.m., § 87(2)(b) swiped his metrocard at a turnstile inside the 23rd Street and Park Avenue 6-train station. § 87(2)(b) walked through the service gate instead of through the turnstile. An officer, who § 87(2)(b) identified by his nameplate as PO Adonis Long, was standing near the platform and asked why § 87(2)(b) went through the service gate. § 87(2)(b) explained the situation to him and PO Long asked, "Why are you yelling? Come outside." When they got to the other side of the turnstiles, PO Long said, "You need to swipe your card again and show that you paid." § 87(2)(b) said "Whatever, whatever."

PO Long said, "Since you are being disrespectful, I am not letting you go through my gate" and he stood in front of the service gate and blocked it. PO Long removed his pepper spray from his belt and held it by his waist in his right hand. In his left hand, PO Long held his asp by his chest and said "You are not going through my gate." PO Long never swung the asp at § 87(2)(b) nor did he point the pepper spray at him. § 87(2)(b) said, "Yeah I am" and attempted to move toward the gate but PO Long extended his right arm and placed his hand against § 87(2)(b) chest (this did not make § 87(2)(b) step back). The incident lasted fifteen or twenty minutes, then § 87(2)(b) left the station and went directly to Transit District 4 at Union Square in order to place a complaint about PO Long. PO Long's memobook entry on June 28, 2006 confirms his involvement in the incident.

On July 12, 2006, the CCRB investigator spoke with § 87(2)(b) and scheduled an interview for July 19, 2006. § 87(2)(b) missed his first scheduled appointment and the investigator mailed him a missed appointment letter. On August 4, 2006, the investigator scheduled another interview with § 87(2)(b) for August 11, 2006. § 87(2)(b) failed to attend his second scheduled interview. § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(g).
