Case Summary

On November 22, 2020, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint in person at the 75th Precinct stationhouse. Sgt. Kimberly Bove forwarded the complaint to IAB, generating IAB log number 2020-27325 and CCRB spinoff number 2020-27976, received by the CCRB on December 9, 2020.

A phone number and mailing address were provided for § 87(2)(b) in the IAB Log. Between December 15, 2020 and January 15, 2021, eight calls were made to § 87(2)(b). On December 15, the individual who answered the phone stated they did not know where § 87(2)(b) was, and that it would be best to call back around 8 p.m. that night. The individual did not want to provide their name and was unsure of how their contact information was obtained. The individual suggested that § 87(2)(b) be called at his own number, but when asked if they could provide his number, the individual stated they did not have it. On January 5, 2021, the individual again mentioned that § 87(2)(b) was not home and was unsure of when he would return. On December 22, 2020, § 87(2)(b) was called; the phone was answered but nobody spoke and the call was eventually disconnected. One letter was mailed to § 87(2)(b) on December 23, 2020. To date, the letter has not been returned by the United States Postal Service.

On December 24, 2020 and December 29, 2020, a voicemail was left asking § 87(2)(b) to return the call. During a second call to § 87(2)(b) on December 24, 2020, an individual answered the phone and passed it to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) confirmed the correct spelling of his name, address, and contact information, and stated that the number that had been called thus far was the best number to reach him. § 87(2)(b) stated he could be reached after the holidays at any time.

On December 31, 2020, the person who answered the phone gave the phone to another individual named § 87(2)(b) who mentioned that § 87(2)(b) was in the shower. When asked for the best time to call back, she stated that later would be best because that was not a good time. On January 11, 2021, the individual who answered the phone asked to be contacted again later in the day. During a final call to § 87(2)(b) later on that same day, a voicemail was left asking that he return the call.

On January 19, 2021, searches of the databases of the Departments of Correction in New York City and New York State showed that § 87(2)(b) is not currently incarcerated.
