Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB by phone on May 10, 2011.

On May 10, 2011, at approximately 12:35 p.m., on Canal Street and 6th Avenue in Manhattan, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b), was pulled over for driving while talking on his cell phone by an officer whom he identified by the last name “Guven” and the tax number 936720 (having obtained this information from a summons). After waiting for PO Guven to issue him a summons, § 87(2)(b) emerged from his vehicle and approached PO Guven, who was standing on the sidewalk. During the ensuing interaction, PO Guven said to § 87(2)(b) “Bin Laden is dead. You’re going to be next. Get back in your car before I ship you off to Guantanamo” (Allegation A).

The tax number provided by § 87(2)(b) corresponds to PO Idris Guven of the 1st Precinct, and according to § 87(2)(b) there were no other officers involved in the incident. § 87(2)(g)

On May 11, 2011, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB intake line and requested to withdraw his complaint, citing a fear that it might affect his taxi license. § 87(2)(b) was assured that retaliation was rare and would be taken seriously by the CCRB and the NYPD. § 87(2)(b) was also offered mediation as a means of resolving his complaint. § 87(2)(b) reiterated his desire to withdraw the complaint. § 87(2)(b) confirmed that he was withdrawing his complaint of his own volition, and had not been coerced into doing so by any employee of the NYPD or the CCRB. This conversation was recorded in audio file 201105972_20110511_0919.wav (attached to IA # 3). Assistant Supervising Investigator Carlmais Johnson reviewed this conversation and confirmed that it adheres to agency standards. A withdrawal form was mailed to § 87(2)(b) on May 11, 2011 and will be added to the case file upon receipt. § 87(2)(g)
