Case Summary

On October 12, 2010, a male identifying himself only as § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB's automated call processing system to file this complaint. On October 8, 2010, at 10:32 p.m., § 87(2)(b) walked downstairs to the first floor of 500 East 165th Street in the Bronx, to ask two officers about the arrest of his cousin. An officer named "PO Alba" threatened him, put him up against the wall (Allegation A), and improperly searched him (Allegation B). Both officers were Hispanic males dressed in uniform.

A search of the Booking/Arraignment/Disposition System identified two individuals, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) who were arrested for reckless endangerment in the second degree, for riding motorcycles on the sidewalk, at the specified time and location. The arrest reports did not list phone numbers for either person. Their arresting officer was identified as PO Robinson Mercado of Patrol Borough Bronx Task Force. The roll call for Patrol Borough Bronx Task Force identifies PO Alfredo Alba working at the time. PO Alba's memo book states that at 11:00 p.m. on October 8, 2010, a male named "Jabar § 87(2)(b)" kept asking questions while the officers were making an arrest and interfered with a lawful arrest. PO Alba's memo book stated that a stop and frisk report was prepared for § 87(2)(b) but no report could be located.

§ 87(2)(b) did not provide a phone number where he could be reached. Lexis-Nexis searches and Whitepages.com searches were conducted to identify his contact information, but the searches had negative results. Letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b) on October 12, 2010, and on October 18, 2010, to the address he provided in his call processing system statement. The letters were not returned to the CCRB by the postal service. After § 87(2)(b)'s full name was identified on November 3, 2010, in PO Alba's memo book entry, two additional letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b) at the 500 East 165th Street address on November 3, 2010, and on November 8, 2010. Additionally, two letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b) at the address listed in PO Alba's memo book entry, of § 87(2)(b) in East Patchogue, New York. None of these letters were returned to the CCRB by the postal service, but § 87(2)(b) did not contact the undersigned investigator. A search of the Department of Correction's online database confirmed that § 87(2)(b) was not incarcerated. § 87(2)(g)
