With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

The People are aware that during the time he/she has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Daniel Castillo has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in a federal civil lawsuit.

1. Stern v. City of New York, et.al., 12-CV-5210, filed in the Eastern District of New York. A judgment of dismissal was entered following a jury verdict that the plaintiff was not falsely arrested.

In the cases that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal with prejudice was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated.

A review of the officer's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On April 20, 2016, Detective Castillo had a substantiated departmental investigation for for missing prisoner property. He was issued an "A" Command Discipline.
