Synopsis

§ 87(2)(b) called the CCRB on May 5, 2008 to report her complaint. She stated that on May 5, 2008 at 2:42 PM and in the vicinity of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, she was entering a building with her bicycle. She stated that PO Badillo exited a police car and told her, "Didn't you hear me tell you to get off the bike?" She told him that she had not. PO Badillo told her, "You black people need to learn to listen. Give me your ID." PO Badillo then issued her a summons for riding her bicycle on the sidewalk. § 87(2)(b) provided PO Badillo's name and his tax identification number. A search in CTS identified PO Abraham Badillo from PSA 1 as the subject officer. § 87(2)(b) also stated that there was an unidentified Hispanic female officer who witnessed the incident. Without further information and documentation, this witness officer could not be identified.

§ 87(2)(b) was first contacted on May 8, 2008 and a voicemail message was left. A first please call letter was sent out on the same day. § 87(2)(b) contacted the CCRB via telephone on May 12, 2008 and she stated that she would call back. On May 13 and May 16, 2008 § 87(2)(b) was again contacted via telephone and voicemail messages were left. On May 21, 2008, § 87(2)(b) was again contacted via telephone on May 21, 2008. She stated that she would like to withdraw her case because she did not have the energy to pursue her complaint. She stated that she was voluntarily withdrawing her complaint and that she was not coerced by a member of the CCRB or the NYPD. This conversation was recorded on tape 200806331-2, side A. Manager Robert Lonergan reviewed the tape. A withdrawal letter was sent on the same day to § 87(2)(b) and it will be added to the case file when it is returned.
