Case Summary

On April 22, 2015, Sgt. Jorge Arancibia of the 23rd Precinct filed this complaint with IAB on behalf of § 87(2)(b) where it received original complaint number 2015-10544. On April 30, 2015, IAB referred this complaint to the CCRB. On April 30, 2015, and May 8, 2015, 'please call' letters were mailed to the address provided by IAB. These letters were not returned by the United States Postal Service. On April 30, 2015, a search of CTS did not result in additional contact information for § 87(2)(b). On May 1, 2015, the undersigned called IAB for additional contact information for § 87(2)(b). No additional information was available.

On May 5, 2015, the undersigned performed a search of the Booking and Arraignment Disposition System. This search produced one additional phone number and an email address. On the same day, the undersigned sent a message to the provided email address. This email was not successfully delivered. The provided phone number was called five times between May 5, 2015, and May 12, 2015. Each time the undersigned received a generic voicemail and left a message. On May 5, 2015, searches of White Pages and the COLES Directory did not produce additional contact information.

On May 6, 2015, a search of LexisNexis provided two additional addresses and one phone number. On May 8, 2015, a call to this number determined that it did not belong to § 87(2)(b). Letters were mailed to the two alternative addresses on May 6, 2015, and May 12, 2015. These letters were not returned by the United States Postal Service. On May 18, 2015, a search of the New York City Department of Correction website determined that § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated.
