Case Summary

On December 18, 2018, Sergeant Michael Disanto of the 25 Precinct, called the IAB Command Center, to report that § 87(2)(b) complained of pain and an abrasion to his left shoulder after fleeing Police Officer Taylor Young and Police Officer Jonathan Trahan, both of the 25th Precinct, who employed a forcible takedown pursuant to his arrest. On December 27, 2018, the CCRB received this complaint from IAB.

The CCRB had only § 87(2)(b)'s name from the IAB log, and independently obtained his date of birth and potential mailing address from his arrest report. On January 2, 2019, a LexisNexis database search was conducted, which revealed four additional potential mailing addresses, five potential phone numbers, and seven potential email addresses associated with § 87(2)(b).

On January 3, 2019, calls were made to each of § 87(2)(b)'s five potential phone numbers, however, four of the numbers were not in service, and the last was claimed to be a wrong number by the unidentified male who answered and refused to provide his name. That same day, letters were mailed to each of § 87(2)(b)'s five potential mailing addresses.

On January 14, 2019, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB, provided his contact information and a brief phone statement, and scheduled an interview for January 16, 2019. On January 16, 2019, § 87(2)(b) failed to appear for his scheduled interview without giving prior notice. That same day, a second letter was mailed to § 87(2)(b)'s confirmed mailing address.

On January 17, 2019, a second call was made to § 87(2)(b) however, the call was disconnected within seconds. The undersigned immediately called back, however, the phone did not ring and immediately forwarded to a voice mailbox, where a voicemail message was left for § 87(2)(b) regarding his missed appointment.

On January 22, 2019, a third call was made to § 87(2)(b) wherein he said he forgot about his previously scheduled interview, and asked to be called the following day in order to schedule an interview. On January 23, 2019, a fourth call was made to § 87(2)(b) who scheduled his second interview appointment for January 25, 2019. On January 25, 2019, § 87(2)(b) failed to appear for his second scheduled interview without giving prior notice.

The CCRB obtained several Body-Worn Camera ("BWC") videos that capture portions of the incident. A January 28, 2019 search of the NYC Department of Correction Inmate Lookup system revealed that § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated. § 87(2)(g)
