TAX NUMBER: 951089

DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has cited JASON PULVER for "Other Misconduct" for his failure to produce a stop and frisk report on March 11, 2016. On March 11, 2016, JASON PULVER and his partner approached a car parked at a fire hydrant in Manhattan. The car was occupied by two men, one in the driver's seat and one in the front passenger seat. JASON PULVER and his partner both claimed to have approached the passenger side of the vehicle, asked the passenger to step out, and frisked the passenger. The CCRB found it unlikely that both officers approached and interacted with the passenger but the investigation was unable to determine which officer was mistaken. In any event, JASON PULVER admitted that he had stopped the passenger and conducted a frisk. No summons was issued and no arrest was made, the officers exercising their discretion to warn the driver about the parking violation. While JASON PULVER noted in his memo book that he had prepared a stop question and frisk report as to the incident, no report was produced. CCRB noted other misconduct in that JASON PULVER failed to prepare a stop, question, and frisk report when he was required to do so.
2. JASON PULVER is a named defendant in the civil action, VITO AMALFITANO V. THE CITY OF NEW YORK ET AL., 15 CV 09100 filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York arising from an incident on January 10, 2015.
