Summary

According to § 87(2)(b) On the evening of March 9, 1998, § 87(2)(b) was driving her vehicle in Queens. At approximately 8:03 PM, PO Schiff pulled over § 87(2)(b) in the vicinity of Hollis Avenue and 194th Street in Queens. When § 87(2)(b) observed the flashing lights of PO Schiff's RMP, she released her seatbelt and reached into her glove compartment for her insurance identification card. PO Schiff approached § 87(2)(b) vehicle and asked for her license, registration and insurance card. While § 87(2)(b) was searching for her registration, PO Schiff looked in § 87(2)(b)'s wallet, and accused her of having an out-of-state driver's license. PO Schiff insisted that § 87(2)(b) had an out-of-state driver's license despite the fact that she was holding her New York State driver's license in her hand. § 87(2)(b) told PO Schiff that she did not know what he was talking about. PO Schiff replied, "Don't lie to me. Give me that license," in an intimidating and menacing voice. When § 87(2)(b) refused, PO Schiff stated, "You want to play it like that? I'll get you." PO Schiff issued § 87(2)(b) summonses for § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) is afraid of PO Schiff, who she describes as a loose cannon.

Analysis

Two phone calls were made to the complainant § 87(2)(b) residence and three phones were made to the complaint's place of business. In addition, two letters requesting that the complainant contact CCRB were sent to the complainant's residence. On April 7, 1998, the complainant § 87(2)(b) was contacted and an interview appointment was scheduled for April 17, 1998 at 3:00 PM. On April 17, 1998, § 87(2)(b) failed to appear for her scheduled appointment.
