DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

In September 2018, the New York City Police Department deemed substantiated allegations that Marta Maciag was involved in an off-duty incident and failed to notify the Duty Captain/Operations. This matter arose out of a dispute involving a friend of hers, a relative of hers, and a number of other people. At least one person was injured. The finding against her was based upon her being involved in a verbal dispute, failing to stay at the scene of the events, and failing to make the proper notifications. The investigation was opened on April 16, 2018.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
