Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Michael Dimonda refused to process a civilian complaint for § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR 01) that, after a traffic stop where she was summonsed by a police officer from the 67th Precinct, she went to the 67th Precinct Stationhouse at 2820 Snyder Avenue in Brooklyn to file a complaint against the officer with whom she interacted. After arriving, § 87(2)(b) expressed her desire to file a complaint to PO Dimonda, who was seated near the stationhouse desk at a separate table with a computer. PO Dimonda allegedly told § 87(2)(b) that complaints were not accepted at the stationhouse, and instead gave § 87(2)(b) a (212)-area-code phone number to call to file a complaint.

PO Dimonda testified (BR 02) that he was on duty as the Telephone/Switchboard Operator but did not recall interacting with § 87(2)(b). PO Dimonda denied that he failed to process any civilian complaint on the date of the incident. PO Dimonda testified that if a civilian had a specific complaint against an officer, he and the desk officer would take all necessary information to process the complaint.

Sgt. Ditto, who was on duty as a desk officer at the time, had no independent recollection of the incident (BR 03) and did not hear PO Dimonda refuse to process a civilian complaint for § 87(2)(b).
