

3. Torres v. City of New York, et.al., 12 CV 4732(ARR)(VVP) - settled in 2013 for an undisclosed sum with stipulation of settlement filed ending litigation in Eastern District of New York.

Detective Mia Farina

1. An investigation was held by the NYPD which revealed a partially substantiated allegation of an incomplete memo book, and not having a copy of a summons in 2011, on an unrelated case.
2. An investigation was held by the NYPD which revealed a failure to appear at the Traffic Violations Bureau in 2015 on an unrelated case.

In the cases that were settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal were filed with the respective courts, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated. Moreover, it appears that any sums paid to the plaintiffs as a result of these settlements were paid solely by the City of New York, without contribution from the officers or detectives.
