Case Summary

On July 11, § 87(2)(b) appeared at the 8th Precinct stationhouse in-person and filed the complaint. On July 11, 2018, the complaint was forwarded to the IAB. On July 19, 2018, this complaint was received at the CCRB.

Between July 19, 2018, and August 1, 2018, a total of six calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) at the telephone number listed for him in the IAB complaint. Each time the call went to fax without an option to leave a voice message.

On July 19, 2018, a CTS search for § 87(2)(b) revealed an email address and one potential telephone number listed for him in the OCD complaint from 2015. Between July 19, 2018, and July 26, 2018, two emails were sent to § 87(2)(b) at this email address requesting that he contact the CCRB. None of the emails sent to § 87(2)(b) was returned as undelivered.

Between July 23, 2018, and August 1, 2018, five calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) at the telephone number obtained for him during the CTS search. Each time the number rang continuously without an option to leave a voice message.

On July 19, 2018, a DMV search for § 87(2)(b) confirmed his home address.

On July 19, 2018, a LEXIS search for § 87(2)(b) revealed three additional addresses, but no telephone numbers.

On July 20, 2018, DHS indicated that they had no record of § 87(2)(b) or anyone else with a similar name registered in their system.

On July 23, 2018, a CLEAR search for § 87(2)(b) confirmed his home address, and listed one additional address and four additional telephone numbers. On July 23, 2018, a call was placed to one of four telephone numbers. A female replied, said that the agency had the wrong number, and that she did not know § 87(2)(b). On July 23, 2018, a call was placed to the second telephone number and it was not in service. On July 23, 2018, a call was placed to the third telephone number. A male replied, said that he knew § 87(2)(b) but that he no longer was in contact with § 87(2)(b) or had no information for him. Between July 23, 2018, and August 1, 2018, a total of five calls were placed to the fourth telephone number. Each time the number rang for approximately 45 seconds and then ended abruptly without an option to leave a voice message.

On August 3, 2018, IAB provided the original complaint § 87(2)(b) filed at the 8th Precinct stationhouse. The complaint confirmed § 87(2)(b) home address and telephone number, but did not list any additional contact information.

On August 8, 2018, a BADS search for § 87(2)(b) revealed that he was arrested on July 27, 2018, and twice on August 5, 2018. The arrest report for July 27, 2018, was sealed. Both of the arrest reports for August 5, 2018, confirmed § 87(2)(b) home address, and did not list any telephone numbers for him.

On August 8, 2018, an OCA search for § 87(2)(b) confirmed his home address, but did not list any telephone numbers.

On August 8, 2018, a COLES search of § 87(2)(b) home address did not list that he resided there, nor did it list any telephone numbers for the residence.

Between July 19, 2018, and August 2, 2018, a total of three please-call letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b) at the address listed for him in the IAB complaint, which was also confirmed through various database searches. On August 7, 2018, the first please-call letter mailed to § 87(2)(b) to this address was returned by USPS as undelivered. The rest of the letters were not returned by USPS as undelivered. Between July 19, 2018, and July 26, 2018, two please-call letters were mailed to § 87(2)(b) at each of three addresses obtained for him during the LEXIS search. On July 23, 2018, a please-call letter was also mailed to § 87(2)(b) at the address obtained for him during the CLEAR search. None of the letters mailed to § 87(2)(b) to the addresses obtained during the LEXIS and CLEAR searches were returned by USPS as undelivered.

The 14th Precinct is not assigned BWC. There is no other known source of video evidence.

On August 9, 2018, a NYC DOC search indicated that § 87(2)(b) is not currently incarcerated.
