TAX NUMBER: 915 815

DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on June 26, 2002, Angel Gonzalez failed to notify the Internal Affairs Bureau that he was aware that other police officers were abusing overtime.
2. The New York City Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about August of 2003 Angel Gonzalez neglected to sign out of the roll call on eight occasions and failed and neglected to maintain an Investigator's Daily Activity Report. He pleaded guilty to those charges.
3. The New York City Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about August 15, 2009, Angel Gonzalez did fail and neglect to properly safeguard his firearm, in that he left unsecured his loaded, Glock 26 off-duty firearm in the top drawer of his dresser, resulting in Angel Gonzalez's fifteen-year-old son gaining possession of said firearm and discharging it. The New York City Police Department found that said conduct was prejudicial to the good order, efficiency, or discipline of the department in that Angel Gonzalez acted in a manner that was injurious to physical, mental, or moral welfare of his fifteen-year-old son. He pleaded guilty to those charges.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
