The following information is provided pursuant to the People's obligations under CPL §245.20(k) and is obtained from the files of the Queens County District Attorney's Office as well as from data maintained by the New York City Police Department. Additionally, in a spirit of full disclosure consistent with our obligations under CPL §§245.20(7) and 245.55, additional material obtained from non-law enforcement sources may also be included below. The fact that this additional information is hereby disclosed is not to be taken as a concession that its disclosure is compelled under CPL Article 245.

The information below pertains to Police Officer Anthony Alvarez, Shield No. 01505 whom the People intend to call as a witness in the above captioned hearing/trial.

DISCIPLINARY MATTER(S):

After a departmental trial, PO Anthony Alvarez was found guilty of the following specification: On or about July 2, 2008, PO Alvarez did engage in conduct prejudicial to the good order, efficiency or discipline of the police department, to wit: said Police Officer lost his ID card.

Said PO, on or about May 26, 2018, was responsible for an invoice discrepancy and an incomplete/inaccurate report regarding a bank drop shortage.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude or limit reference to this information in any further proceedings in this prosecution.
