DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that Detective Jerome Foy abused his authority by wrongfully entering and/or searching a premises. This finding arose out of an incident on 3/23/2016, where Jerome Foy entered Civilian #1's apartment, without Civilian #1's valid consent, while attempting to effect the arrest of Civilian #2. Det. Foy had an arrest warrant for Civilian #2, and the warrant listed Civilian #1's apartment as the address for Civilian #2. The warrant was approximately 16 months old, and Det. Foy had taken no further steps to ascertain if Civilian #2 resided at, or would be present at, the apartment. The CCRB found that Det. Foy had insufficient reason to believe that Civilian #2 was in Civilian #1's apartment. The CCRB found that, lacking valid consent from Civilian #1 to enter, and no basis to believe Civilian #2 was within the apartment, Jerome Foy abused his authority by wrongfully entering and searching Civilian #1's apartment.
2. This detective is a named defendant in the civil action Lawrence Wagner and Hakim Abdurraheem v. City of New York et al., 14CV02521, filed in the Southern District of New York. The date of the incident is 6/18/2012.
