Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via the Call Processing System on January 15, 2014. Between January 15, 2014 and April 4, 2014, the CCRB called her 11 times. On January 15, 2014, § 87(2)(b) provided a phone statement and asked to be called the next day to schedule an interview. She did not answer her phone the next day. On January 21, 2014, the CCRB contacted § 87(2)(b) and scheduled an interview for January 28, 2014. She called in advance to cancel that appointment, and said she would reschedule later.

§ 87(2)(b) did not respond to any subsequent messages left on her voicemail. Letters sent to § 87(2)(b) on February 3, 2014, February 21, 2014, and April 4, 2014, have not been returned by the US Postal Service.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a phone number for the victim, § 87(2)(b) in her initial complaint. This number was called five times between January 15, 2014, and February 27, 2014. § 87(2)(b) returned the third call on February 11, 2014, and provided a phone statement. During that phone statement, he made an allegation that not all of his money was returned to him. A spin-off was generated and forwarded to IAB under CCRB #201404090. § 87(2)(b) said he would call back on February 14, 2014 to schedule an interview. § 87(2)(b) did not call that day. The CCRB called him twice more, and left a voicemail on February 27, 2014. As of April 29, 2014, § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB.

Letters sent to § 87(2)(b) on February 21, 2014, and February 28, 2014, were returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable. On April 15, 2014, a Lexis Nexis search provided an accurate address for § 87(2)(b) in addition to four possible phone numbers and one possible email address. On April 15, 2014, and April 25, 2014, the CCRB sent please call letters to § 87(2)(b) at the address listed in Lexis Nexis. The letters have not been returned by the US Postal Service. On April 15, 2014, a letter sent to the possible email address was returned as undeliverable. On April 15, 2014, the CCRB placed calls to all four possible phone numbers for § 87(2)(b). They were all out of service.

A search of the New York City Department of Correction on April 15, 2014, showed that neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) is incarcerated or was incarcerated at the time the contact attempts were made. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)
