DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department substantiated for Police Stefan Dan an allegation of penal law violations, and Officer Dan pleaded guilty to the related departmental charges and specifications that, on or about March 16, 2018, while on duty, he wrongfully deposited the funds from the sale of department gym equipment into his personal bank account, and failed to make accurate and concise entries in the command gym log regarding the sale of gym equipment in the gym bag. It was reported that during an inventory of the gym equipment housed at a police command, a cable fly machine could not be located. When interviewed, Officer Dan, who ran the command gym, stated that he believed that on an unknown date at an unknown time, he relocated the equipment to the boiler room. A captain and two lieutenants inspected the command boiler room and the equipment was not located. A lieutenant advised that the machine was believed to have been purchased through the command gym dues and was not NYPD department-issued property.
2. As of February 10, 2021, the Civilian Complaint Review Board has pending for Stefan Dan allegations of Force - Physical Force, Abuse of Authority - Search (of person), and Abuse of Authority - Forcible removal to Hospital.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>). Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
