Mr. Gompers,

With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosure: the People are aware that during the time she has been employed by the New York City Police Department, Police Officer Steven Cosentino, has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in one federal civil lawsuit.

Today, the People performed a simple name search of the Public Access to Court Electronic Records ["PACER"] website, and found the following cases which list "Steven Cosentino" as a civil defendant together with the "City of New York" in a case in the Eastern District of New York:

1. Arthur v. Kelly et al. 15-cv-5267 – settled for an undisclosed amount on September 9, 2019, ending litigation in the Eastern District of New York;

In the case that settled, a stipulation of settlement and order of dismissal was filed with the respective court, indicating, in sum and substance, that nothing in the settlement shall be construed as an admission or concession of liability by any of the defendants or the City of New York regarding any of the allegations made by the plaintiffs in their complaints, or that any of the plaintiffs' rights under the Federal or New York Constitutions or Statutes had been violated. Moreover, it appears that any sums paid to the plaintiffs as a result of these settlements were paid solely by the City of New York, without contribution from PO Cosentino.

Further, PO Cosentino received a command discipline for an inappropriate internet posting on February 3, 2014.
