With reference to the above-mentioned case, and pursuant to our continuing obligations, the People make the following disclosures:

A review of the Sergeant Michael Sena's Central Personnel Index (CPI) revealed the following:

1. On December 12, 2015, Sergeant Sena had a substantiated departmental investigation for making a social media post that violated NYPD's social media policy. The social media post divulged the command of another member of service, which was information that Sergeant Sena had learned in his capacity as an investigator during a confidential internal affairs investigation. As a result, charges and specifications were filed, Sergeant Sena entered a plea of guilty on May 10, 2017. Sergeant Sena was required to comply with and complete re-training prescribed by the NYPD, and he forfeited fifteen vacation days.

A review of Sergeant Sena's CCRB history revealed the following:

1. On February 16, 2017, Sergeant Sena had a substantiated CCRB complaint for abuse of authority for improperly entering and searching a location. As a result, Sergeant Sena received formalized training from the NYPD.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Ext.] during office hours.

Sincerely,
