Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via telephone on March 19, 2018.

On March 19, 2018, at approximately 2:35 PM, Sgt. Nicholas McGarry, PO Miguel Donovan, and PO Janert Gil of the 48th Precinct Anti-Crime team observed § 87(2)(b) s § 87(2)(b)-year-old son) strike an unidentified individual on Washington Avenue between East 189th Street and Fordham Road in the Bronx. As PO Donovan pursued § 87(2)(b) on foot, on East 189th Street between Washington Avenue and Third Avenue, PO Donovan allegedly said to § 87(2)(b) “Stop, motherfucker” (Allegation A: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)).

§ 87(2)(b) ran to his home, located at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. The three officers caught up to him as he stood at the top of the building’s four-step stoop and attempted to enter the building. As the officers approached, PO Gil allegedly drew his gun (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)) and Sgt. McGarry allegedly said, “Don’t fucking move” (Allegation C: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)). Next, Sgt. McGarry allegedly took hold of § 87(2)(b) s shoulder and pulled him down the stairs, causing § 87(2)(b) to fall onto the sidewalk (Allegation D: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Sgt. McGarry, PO Gil, and PO Donovan then each allegedly kicked § 87(2)(b) on the head and back (Allegation E: Force, § 87(2)(g); Allegation F: Force, § 87(2)(g); Allegation G: Force, § 87(2)(g)), before Sgt. McGarry allegedly placed his foot or knee on § 87(2)(b) s head (Allegation H: Force, § 87(2)(g)).

§ 87(2)(b) then exited § 87(2)(b) and saw what was taking place. Sgt. McGarry and PO Donovan each allegedly said to § 87(2)(b) “Shut the fuck up,” and PO Donovan allegedly asked him, “Where the fuck is the gun?” (Allegation I: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g); Allegation J: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)). When § 87(2)(b) approached, Sgt. McGarry allegedly said to him, “Back the fuck up” (Allegation K: Discourtesy, § 87(2)(g)), and PO Donovan allegedly pushed § 87(2)(b) away (Allegation L: Force, § 87(2)(g)). Additionally, an officer allegedly used the word “Nigga” while addressing § 87(2)(b) (Allegation M: Offensive Language, § 87(2)(g)), and PO Donovan allegedly said to § 87(2)(b) “[Back up] before I shoot you” (Allegation N: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)).

Ultimately, the officers arrested § 87(2)(b) for § 87(2)(b)

The investigation obtained video of § 87(2)(b) striking § 87(2)(b) on Washington Avenue (Board Review 01), but no video capturing any FADO allegation.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A: Discourtesy—On East 189th Street between Washington Ave and Third Avenue in the Bronx, Police Officer Miguel Donovan spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

According to § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 02), when he was on East 189th Street approaching Third Avenue, he heard a voice behind him say, “Hey, stop. Stop, motherfucker.” He turned and saw PO Donovan pursuing him on foot.

§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review 03), who was with § 87(2)(b) prior to the police pursuit, stated that he saw plainclothes officers begin to pursue § 87(2)(b) but he did not hear any officer use profanity toward § 87(2)(b). However, he was approximately one half-block from § 87(2)(b) when the pursuit began, and he did not follow § 87(2)(b) and the officers.

The investigation was unable to obtain a statement from § 87(2)(b) who was with § 87(2)(b) when the police pursuit began.

An anonymous 911 caller reported the assault in question. She stated (Board Review 04) that she observed the fight from inside of her parked vehicle and did not exit the vehicle. The individuals involved in the fight dispersed and fled around a corner, and the 911 caller did not see what happened to any of these individuals after they moved out of sight. She did not see police officers arrive on scene and did not see any interaction between police officers and the individuals involved in the fight.

According to PO Donovan (Board Review 05), when he exited his vehicle in order to stop § 87(2)(b) he said, “Police. Stop.” However, he denied using the word “motherfucker” or using any profanity at all. Sgt. McGarry (Board Review 06), consistent with PO Donovan, stated that he exited the vehicle shortly after PO Donovan. He was about twenty feet behind PO Donovan when they began to pursue § 87(2)(b) on foot. Sgt. McGarry did not hear PO Donovan say to § 87(2)(b) “Stop, motherfucker,” or use any profanity. He did not hear PO Donovan say anything at all to § 87(2)(b). PO Gil (Board Review 07) stated that upon exiting the vehicle, PO Donovan said to § 87(2)(b) “Police.” He also told § 87(2)(b) to stop. However, PO Gil did not hear PO Donovan use the word “motherfucker” or use any other profanity.

As noted, the investigation obtained video of § 87(2)(b) striking § 87(2)(b) on Washington Avenue, but no video capturing the police pursuit. Further, the officers were not assigned Body-Worn Cameras at the time of the incident.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation B: Abuse of Authority—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Police Officer Janert Gil drew his gun.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that when he reached the doorway to § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, the officers’ marked vehicle came to a stop outside of the building. When the three officers exited, PO Gil drew his gun.

Neither § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 08), nor § 87(2)(b) (§ 87(2)(b)’s mother) (Board Review 09), nor § 87(2)(b) (§ 87(2)(b)’s neighbor at the time of the incident) (Board Review 10), each of whom exited § 87(2)(b) and witnessed later portions of the arrest, was in a position to witness this portion of § 87(2)(b)’s encounter with the officers.

PO Gil denied ever drawing his firearm. Sgt. McGarry stated that he never saw PO Gil draw a firearm and PO Donovan did not recall PO Gil ever drawing a firearm.

The Field Team visited the incident location and discovered that there are no video cameras positioned to capture the incident in question.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation C: Discourtesy—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Sergeant Nicholas McGarry spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

According to § 87(2)(b) when Sgt. McGarry arrived outside of § 87(2)(b) he said to § 87(2)(b) “Don’t fucking move.”

§ 87(2)(b) stated that from inside of his home, before he exited to see what was taking place, he heard someone yell, “Don’t fucking move. Get down.” However, he was unable to identify the voice in question.

Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) saw or heard what was taking place outside of § 87(2)(b) until officers were placing § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs.

Sgt. McGarry denied saying to § 87(2)(b) “Don’t fucking move,” or using any profanity toward § 87(2)(b). PO Gil and PO Donovan each stated that they did not hear Sgt. McGarry make this remark or use any profanity toward § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation D: Force—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Sergeant Nicholas McGarry used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that when the officers caught up to him outside of § 87(2)(b) he was standing at the top of the four-step stoop leading to the building’s entrance. Sgt. McGarry approached, took hold of § 87(2)(b)’s left shoulder, and pulled § 87(2)(b) down the stairs, causing § 87(2)(b) to fall to the sidewalk, where he landed on his left side. § 87(2)(b) did not sustain any injury during the course of this incident and did not seek medical attention.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) each stated that when they exited § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was chest-down on the sidewalk at the bottom of the stairs.

Sgt. McGarry stated that he was about ten feet behind PO Gil when PO Gil reached § 87(2)(b) at the top of the stairs. PO Gil pulled § 87(2)(b)’s arms behind his back. § 87(2)(b) “wiggled” and tried to pull away from PO Gil, but he did not overpower PO Gil and PO Gil placed him in handcuffs. Neither Sgt. McGarry nor PO Gil knocked or pulled § 87(2)(b) from the stairs. Further, Sgt. McGarry did not recall any officer ever taking § 87(2)(b) to the ground and he did not remember if § 87(2)(b) ever fell to the ground in any manner.

PO Gil stated that after Sgt. McGarry and PO Donovan exited the vehicle to pursue § 87(2)(b) on foot, he pursued in the vehicle. He caught up to § 87(2)(b) first, outside of § 87(2)(b) exited his vehicle, and approached § 87(2)(b) at the top of the stairs leading to the building’s entrance. Sgt. McGarry then reached the stairs. PO Gil took hold of § 87(2)(b)’s arms, pulled them behind his back, and placed him in handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) did not resist. According to PO

Gil, no officer pulled § 87(2)(b) off of the stairs or took him to the ground, and § 87(2)(b) never fell to the ground at all.

PO Donovan stated that when he reached the corner of Cyrus Place and Third Avenue, he saw § 87(2)(b) in front of § 87(2)(b). PO Gil and Sgt. McGarry approached § 87(2)(b), took hold of him, and moved him down the stairs to the sidewalk. § 87(2)(b) did not fall from the stairs or fall to the sidewalk, he never went to the ground, and the officers never took him to ground. Although § 87(2)(b) resisted the officers' efforts to handcuff him by shaking his shoulders and twisting his upper body, the officers pulled his arms behind his back and placed him in handcuffs.

Note that none of the officers involved in the incident prepared a TRI report for § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 11).

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation E: Force—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Sergeant Nicholas McGarry used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F: Force—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Police Officer Miguel Donovan used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation G: Force—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Police Officer Janert Gil used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that after he fell to the sidewalk, before he was placed in handcuffs, the three officers each kicked him. Together, in total, they kicked him four times on the head and twice on the back. He was chest-down and was attempting to lift himself from the sidewalk, his arms at his sides, while the officers kicked him. As noted above, § 87(2)(b) did not sustain any injury during the course of this incident and did not seek medical attention.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that when he exited § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) was chest-down on the sidewalk. His hands were free and he was attempting to turn himself over. PO Donovan then kicked § 87(2)(b) three times on the left side of his ribs.

§ 87(2)(b) also stated that while § 87(2)(b) lay chest-down on the sidewalk, an officer kicked him, but she could not describe the officer in question.

According to § 87(2)(b) when she exited the building she saw § 87(2)(b) lying on the sidewalk. A female officer punched § 87(2)(b) in the ribs, in the stomach, and on the head. She did not know how many times this officer struck § 87(2)(b).

Note that while PO Sandra Martinez (Board Review 12), PO Robert Wichers (Board Review 13), and PO Richard McKnight (Board Review 14) of the 48th Precinct Anti-Crime team responded to the scene, it is undisputed that they arrived after § 87(2)(b) was placed in handcuffs.

Sgt. McGarry, PO Donovan, and PO Gil each stated that Sgt. McGarry and PO Gil handcuffed § 87(2)(b) without any use of force beyond pulling his arms behind his back. They denied ever kicking him.

As noted above, none of the officers involved in the incident prepared a TRI report for § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]

Allegation H: Force—Outside of § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] in the Bronx, Sergeant Nicholas McGarry used physical force against § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]

§ 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated that after officers kicked him, and before they placed him in handcuffs, an officer placed what felt to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] like a knee on § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head, using his full bodyweight to hold § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head down against the sidewalk. He maintained this pressure for thirty to forty-five seconds.

§ 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated that when he came outside, before PO Donovan kicked § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] an officer placed the bottom of his foot on § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head, holding § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head down. However, § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s description of the officer in question corresponded to the pedigrees of both Sgt. McGarry and PO Gil. However, § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated that when she came outside, § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] was lying chest-down on the sidewalk, and Sgt. McGarry’s foot was on § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated that she did not see any officer place a foot on § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head.

Sgt. McGarry denied ever placing a foot or knee on § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head, and stated that no officer did so. PO Gil and PO Donovan also denied that any officer ever placed a foot or knee on § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]’s head.

Allegation I: Discourtesy—Outside of § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] in the Bronx, Sergeant Nicholas McGarry spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]

Allegation J: Discourtesy—Outside of § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] in the Bronx, Police Officer Miguel Donovan spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]

According to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] when officers kicked § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] said that he was not moving and asked why the officers were kicking him. In response, Sgt. McGarry and PO Donovan each said to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] “Shut the fuck up.” Additionally, PO Donovan then said to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] “Where the fuck is the gun?”

§ 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated that officers asked him, “Where’s the gun?” However, he made no allegation that any officer used profanity in this context. As addressed below, he stated that Sgt. McGarry told § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] to “Shut the fuck up.”

When asked if any officer used profanity toward § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated that an officer did so, but she did not remember what was said. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] did not allege that any officer used profanity toward § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]

Sgt. McGarry stated that he did not tell § 87(2)(b) to “Shut the fuck up,” or use any profanity toward § 87(2)(b). Additionally, he did not hear any officer ask § 87(2)(b) “Where the fuck is the gun?” or ask about a gun at all.

PO Donovan stated that when § 87(2)(b) initially fled from the officers, he held onto his front right jacket pocket. As such, PO Donovan thought that § 87(2)(b) might be carrying a firearm. However, PO Donovan denied ever asking § 87(2)(b) if he had a gun or where a gun was located. Further, he denied using any profanity toward § 87(2)(b) or hearing any other officer do so.

PO Gil stated that no officer ever asked § 87(2)(b) about a gun or used profanity toward § 87(2)(b).

Allegation K: Discourtesy—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Sergeant Nicholas McGarry spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)
Allegation L: Force—Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Police Officer Miguel Donovan used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that when he descended the stairs to the sidewalk, he approached the officers and said, “What the fuck are y’all doing? That’s my son.” Sgt. McGarry said to him, “Back the fuck up.” PO Donovan then approached § 87(2)(b) and shoved him away, using two hands against § 87(2)(b)’s chest.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that when § 87(2)(b) came outside, he began to argue with the officers. In response, an officer pushed § 87(2)(b) back. Additionally, Sgt. McGarry said to § 87(2)(b) both “Back the fuck up” and, as noted above, “Shut the fuck up.”

According to § 87(2)(b) PO Donovan said to § 87(2)(b) “Back the fuck up” and then shoved § 87(2)(b) away.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that when § 87(2)(b) approached the officers, an officer pushed him away and said, “Mind your business.” When asked if any officer used profanity toward § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) stated that an officer said to § 87(2)(b) “Shut the fuck up.” However, she was unable to describe the officer in question. She did not allege that any officer said, “Back the fuck up.”

Sgt. McGarry denied making the remark in question or using any profanity toward § 87(2)(b). Further, he stated that § 87(2)(b) remained at the top of the stairs and did not approach the officers. He also stated that no officer pushed or otherwise used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

PO Donovan stated that § 87(2)(b) descended the stairs and approached to within five feet of the officers. As such, PO Donovan instructed him to move away. He did not recall his exact wording but denied saying “Back the fuck up,” using profanity, or hearing any other officer do so. Further, he denied pushing § 87(2)(b) or seeing any other officer do so.

PO Gil also stated that § 87(2)(b) descended the stairs and approached to within three or four feet of the officers, which concerned PO Gil. However, according to PO Gil, the officers ignored § 87(2)(b) and did not engage with him. PO Gil did not recall Sgt. McGarry saying to § 87(2)(b) “Back the fuck up.” He also stated that PO Donovan did not push § 87(2)(b)

Note that none of the officers involved in the incident prepared a TRI report for § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 15).

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation M: Offensive Language— Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, an officer made remarks to § 87(2)(b) based upon race.

§ 87(2)(b) did not spontaneously make any allegation of discourteous language. However, when asked if any officer used profanity toward § 87(2)(b) she responded that not only did an officer say to him, “Shut the fuck up,” (addressed above in the analysis of Allegation L), but that the officer said, in full, “Shut the fuck up, nigga.”

Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) corroborated § 87(2)(b)'s allegation that an officer used the word “Nigga.” Further, Sgt. McGarry, PO Gil, and PO Donovan each denied that any officer used this word.

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation N: Abuse of Authority— Outside of § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx, Police Officer Miguel Donovan threatened § 87(2)(b) with the use of force.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that PO Donovan said to § 87(2)(b) not only, “back the fuck up,” but in full, “Back the fuck up before I shoot you.”

Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) corroborated § 87(2)(b)'s allegation that PO Donovan threatened to shoot § 87(2)(b). Further, PO Donovan, Sgt. McGarry, and PO Gil each denied that any officer used this word.
