Case Summary

On July 4, 2020, § 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint on the CCRB's online website.

The investigation did not obtain any video surveillance.

Between July 7, 2020 and July 22, 2020, six calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) at the phone number she provided to the CCRB. On the second call, a female answered. After the agency name and investigator name was provided, the civilian disengaged the call within eight seconds. On every other call, voicemails were left requesting a return call.

On July 9, 2020, a CTS search yielded contact information that was eight years or more outdated. On that same day, a DMV search yielded an additional address for § 87(2)(b) while a LexisNexis search yielded several additional email addresses. On July 10, 2020, a CLEAR search yielded two additional phone numbers for § 87(2)(b).

Between July 13, 2020 and July 28, 2020, five calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) at one of the phone numbers obtained in the CLEAR search. On each occasion, the call would disconnect before the phone could ring. Between July 13, 2020 and July 28, 2020, five calls were placed to the remaining additional phone number provided in the CLEAR search. On the first four calls, voicemails were left requesting a return call. On the last call, an older female answered the phone and placed a younger female on the line after hearing that the investigator would like to speak with § 87(2)(b). The younger female disengaged the call after the agency name and investigator name was provided.

Between July 8, 2020 and July 23, 2020, three emails were sent to § 87(2)(b) at the email address she provided to the CCRB online. Between July 16, 2020 and July 23, 2020, two emails were sent to § 87(2)(b) at the email addresses provided in the LexisNexis search. None of the emails were returned by the server.

On June 30, 2020, a search of the NYC and NYS Department of Corrections Inmate Lookup Service was performed which yielded negative results for § 87(2)(b).
