Case Summary

On May 3, 2021, § 87(2)(b) reported the following incident via the CCRB online complaint submission form on behalf of herself, her friend § 87(2)(b) and two unknown individuals. § 87(2)(b) provided a phone number, mailing address, and email address for herself and no contact information for § 87(2)(b). The undersigned investigator received the case on May 5, 2021.

On May 6, 2021, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) at the phone number she provided and left a voicemail. The same day, § 87(2)(b) called the undersigned and left a voicemail. The undersigned called § 87(2)(b) back later that day, confirmed her contact information, and took a phone statement for the purpose of confirming jurisdiction. During the call, § 87(2)(b) provided § 87(2)(b)'s name but did not provide any contact information for her. Between May 10 and May 14, 2021, the undersigned placed three more calls to § 87(2)(b) leaving a voicemail each time. On May 6 and May 14, 2021, the undersigned sent two emails to § 87(2)(b) at the email address she provided. Neither of the emails were returned as undeliverable. On May 12 and May 19, 2021, the undersigned sent two text messages to § 87(2)(b). Due to the limitations during the work-from-home period, the undersigned did not send letters to § 87(2)(b)'s mailing address.

On May 5 and May 14, 2021, the investigation conducted Clear, CTS, and NYPD BADS database searches for § 87(2)(b) retrieving one mailing address, one phone number, and one email address. On May 20, 2021, the undersigned placed a first call to § 87(2)(b) at the number retrieved from the searches. Mike Clancy, acting president of the New York City Brooklyn Copwatch organization, picked up and stated that the number belonged to him and not to § 87(2)(b). He further stated that he knew § 87(2)(b) since he had advised her to file a previous CCRB complaint and that he would give her a message. On June 6, 2021, the undersigned called the number again and § 87(2)(b) Clancy stated that he had given the message to § 87(2)(b) and would give her another message. Between May 20 and June 4, 2021, the undersigned sent three emails to the address retrieved for § 87(2)(b). None of the emails were returned as undeliverable. Due to the limitations during the work-from-home period, the undersigned did not send letters to § 87(2)(b)'s mailing address.

Given that § 87(2)(b) did not know the other victims' names or contact information, the investigation was unable to determine their identities and contact them.

Searches of the New York State and New York City Department of Corrections databases on June 15, 2021 confirmed that neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) was incarcerated during the contact attempts.

The investigation recovered two social media videos and 10 body-worn camera videos of this incident. No other video footage was recovered.
