For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about February 21, 2015, while on-duty and assigned to the 14th precinct in New York County, Eric Sun (1) failed to conduct a thorough field investigation, to wit, he failed to adequately investigate the circumstances of the arrest of a member of the service; (2) after becoming aware that the subject of an unusual police occurrence was a member of the service, he failed to request the response of a patrol supervisor; (3) after becoming aware that a member of the service was intoxicated or impaired while armed, he failed to notify the internal affairs bureau; (4) made inadequate entries in his activity log, to wit, he failed to record the name, rank, shield number and command of an off-duty uniformed member of the service involved in an off-duty incident; and (5) upon responding to an incident involving a uniformed member of the service under circumstances indicating that the member may have been intoxicated then, or at an earlier period directly related to the incident in question, he failed to prepare a supervisor's fitness for duty report and to notify a precinct commander or duty captain to respond to the incident location.
