Case Summary

On June 1, 2017, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via phone and confirmed his cell phone number and residential address. § 87(2)(b) refused to provide an e-mail address and declined to be contacted via text message.

Between June 5, 2017, and June 27, 2017, § 87(2)(b) was contacted six times via phone, resulting in five conversations and one voicemail. During three conversations, § 87(2)(b) scheduled and confirmed his attendance at a CCRB off-site interview in the Bronx for June 13, 2017. However, two minutes prior to his scheduled field interview, § 87(2)(b) called to say he could not attend the interview due to work issues. During this same time frame, two letters were sent to his confirmed residential address and were not returned to the CCRB as undeliverable.

On June 27, 2017, Inv. Manager Diana Townsend contacted § 87(2)(b) who explained that he no longer wanted to pursue the complaint, § 87(2)(b). The mediation and investigative processes were explained to § 87(2)(b) and he was informed that the CCRB could meet him in the field, on his lunch hour, or after hours to accommodate his busy schedule. § 87(2)(b) ultimately declined these options, as he felt that “nothing would happen” as a result of the complaint. § 87(2)(b) was informed that, just by filing this complaint, it would remain on the officer’s record. § 87(2)(b) refused to withdraw his complaint, but confirmed that he was not interested in providing a statement or mediating with the officer. As a result, § 87(2)(b) was informed that his case would be closed and he was provided with instructions on how to petition to have his case reopened in the future, if he desired.

§ 87(2)(g)
