DISCLOSURES

In connection with the above person, whom the People may call as a witness, please be aware of the following:

1. In approximately October 2012, the New York Police Department deemed substantiated an allegation that Michael Seiling committed a violation of Other Department Rules. This matter arose out of an investigation of misuse of the computer system by multiple officers who conducted computer searches on famous individuals. The investigation appears to have been initiated in 2007.
2. Michael Seiling is a named defendant in the civil action Leonard Medina v. the City of New York, et al., 14CV06 034 filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, involving a police action incident that occurred on October 7, 2010.

Should additional information subject to disclosure regarding this person become available, you will be advised accordingly.

Any information regarding civil law suit(s) against the officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil law suits in which that officer is a defendant.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use in the case at hand of this information and any other information disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions in this regard, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case in connection with which you are receiving this disclosure.
