Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) filed this complaint by phone with the CCRB on February 9, 2012. On November 15, 2011, at approximately 2:55pm, § 87(2)(b) was walking on Columbia Street and Lorraine Street in Brooklyn on his way to pick up his granddaughter from school. Two plainclothes officers, later identified as Sgt. Patrick Quigley and PO Anna Carrasco from the 76th Precinct, stopped him and told him he looked suspicious. Sgt. Quigley removed § 87(2)(b)'s coat and searched it, and PO Carrasco frisked § 87(2)(b). PO Carrasco unsnapped § 87(2)(b)'s pants, which fell to approximately knee height, and PO Carrasco shook his boxers. § 87(2)(b) tried to step away and push PO Carrasco's hand away, but Sgt. Quigley threw him to the ground. § 87(2)(b) was issued summonses for possession of marijuana and disorderly conduct. § 87(2)(b) identified Sgt. Quigley and PO Carrasco based on information provided to him by the § 87(2)(b) and from the summonses he received.

When § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint, he stated that he believed the incident date was December 9, 2011. The undersigned checked E-courts and found the incident date to be November 15, 2011. On February 13, 2012, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) and received a message stating that the phone number was not in service. The undersigned searched 411.com and found an alternative phone number for § 87(2)(b). On the same date, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) at the alternative phone number and reached his niece, who took a message for § 87(2)(b). The undersigned also mailed § 87(2)(b) a "please call" letter. On February 14, 2012, § 87(2)(b) contacted the undersigned and he scheduled to appear at the CCRB on February 21, 2012. When § 87(2)(b) did not appear for his interview, the undersigned mailed him a "missed appointment" letter. On February 24 and March 2, 2012, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) and left him two messages asking him to contact the undersigned. On March 5, 2012, the undersigned called § 87(2)(b) and he scheduled to appear at the CCRB on March 6, 2012. § 87(2)(b) missed his second interview appointment with the undersigned. On March 15, 2012, the undersigned checked the Department of Corrections website and verified that § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated. As of this date, the letters sent to § 87(2)(b) have not been returned by the United States Postal Service.
