DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised of the following:

1. The New York City Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation(s) that on or about May 7 and May 8, 2019, MARQUIS CROSS utilized a department database to perform tasks unrelated to the official business in the department, to wit: said detective used a department database in order to perform DAS LITE inquiries and omniform inquiries on a person known to the police department and failed to notify his supervisor upon learning that said person was wanted.
2. MARQUIS CROSS is a named defendant in the civil action, RICHARD SHEBAIRO v. CITY OF NEW YORK, ET AL., 14-CV-08 485, filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, involving an incident that occurred on December 4, 2013.
3. The Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) deemed substantiated an allegation that on February 23, 2016, Det. Cross failed to prepare a memo book entry and failed to prepare a stop and frisk report for a stop he made of a civilian who had what appeared to be a knife clipped to his pants. It only appeared to be a knife, but was not, and Det. Cross did not issue a summons.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated) are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
