Summary of Complaint

§ 87(2)(b) made his initial CCRB complaint by telephone on February 26, 2003. He alleged that nearly two months earlier, on January 1, 2003, PO Cesar Dorado pulled him over for a traffic infraction and used racial slurs. From March 4, 2003 through March 20, 2003, six telephone messages were left for § 87(2)(b) and two letters sent, with no immediate response. Finally, on March 25, 2003, § 87(2)(b) called and left a voicemail message stating that he did not want to pursue his complaint. He was contacted later that day, at which time he rejected mediation and reiterated his desire to withdraw. When asked to discuss the incident, he explained that he was upset that he had received a traffic summons, and he did not appreciate PO Dorado asking questions about the ownership of his car and the validity of his driver's license. He repeated that he felt the officer needed anger management training. He did not articulate any specific racial slurs. He confirmed that he wished to withdraw his complaint of his own accord, and had not been intimidated or coerced. A tape of the conversation was reviewed by Team One Supervisor Sarah Graizbord. § 87(2)(g)
