Case Summary

On September 25, 2015, Sgt. Matthew Cahill of the 73rd Precinct filed this complaint with IAB over the phone on behalf of § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) IAB generated log number 2015-29026 and referred the case to the CCRB on October 1, 2015. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

The IAB log contained no contact information for § 87(2)(b) The arrest report listed only his address. A search of CTS found a different complaint filed by § 87(2)(b) in 2014 § 87(2)(b) His address from the prior case matched the one on the arrest report. The prior case also revealed phone numbers. On October 2, 2015 and October 9, 2015, letters were sent to § 87(2)(b) These letters were not returned by the United States Postal Service. On October 2, 2015, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was called on his cell phone (found in the prior case). He answered and confirmed his contact information. § 87(2)(b) requested to call back at a later time as he had just woken up. He provided the undersigned with a different phone number which he preferred to be contacted by. From October 5, 2015 to October 20, 2015, this number was called five times. Voicemails were left each time, aside from the fourth call in which a man answered. When asked to speak with § 87(2)(b) the man passed the phone to a woman. She told the undersigned that it was the wrong number. On October 13, 2015 and October 15, 2015, § 87(2)(b) was called on the cell number where he was originally reached. During the first call, a man who identified himself as § 87(2)(b)'s cousin said that § 87(2)(b) was not with him. He agreed to pass on a message to § 87(2)(b) During the second call, a man answered and said that § 87(2)(b) was not there. When asked if he could take a message, he said something incomprehensible and hung up the phone. On October 15, 2015, a search of the NYC Department of Correction website did not indicate that § 87(2)(b) was incarcerated.

On October 2, 2015, a search of Google Street View revealed the Church of God of Prophecy on the corner of the incident location. On October 2, 2015 and October 7, 2015, messages were left with the Church of God of Prophecy. On October 9, 2015, § 87(2)(b) called. He said that there are no exterior facing cameras. No officers from the 83rd Precinct wear body worn cameras.
