(SM1) On September 25, 2016 at 1500 hours I received a direct call on Ext. 2234 from complainant [REDACTED] who reported he was stopped while driving and immediately informed he had an outstanding warrant,he was arrested on 09/25/2016 in the 71 Precinct (A/O name not provide). Today he returned to the 71st Precinct to speak with someone about obtaining his property along with vehicle documents that were not returned to him, when he was told he needed to know the name of his Arresting Officer. When the complainant explained that he did not know his name the Officer at the window told him to leave or he'd be arrested. The complainant further states the Desk Sgt. Black/Male (Name not provided) intervened as he was asking the Officer/Sgt. in slang term if you could help me at which time he didn't like what he said and threw the complainants voucher at him, as other Unnamed Officers grabbed him and threw him out of the precinct. It is the complainants belief he had the right to remain in the Precinct in effort to have someone assist him in identifying his arresting officer, or retuning his vehicle documentation. Citing no one should have used their authority like that. (SM1)

2030 Hours, I spoke with complainant [REDACTED] who reviewed video and determined the video was mainly audio and you are able to hear a Officer telling him to leave the Precinct or he'll be arrested. He also states the camera is shaking as they are struggling and then he's escorted out of the Precinct with an Officer walking by. The compliant will email the video to the C/C Desk.(SM1)
