On Duty Traffic Incident - Vehicle Pursuit - Other	Unfounded	2019/05/21	On Monday, August 27, 2018, at 0358 hours, Complainant [REDACTED] was removed to North Shore Manhasset Hospital in connection with Arrest [REDACTED] for CPW-2nd: Loaded Firearm, Obstruct Governmental Admin-2nd, and Criminal Possession of Weapon- 4th: Firearm in front of 139-22 232 Street. [REDACTED] was in a vehicle wanted for menacing with a firearm. A description of the vehicle was put over the radio. While canvassing for the vehicle, the officers observed the vehicle travelling at a high rate of speed, a significant distance ahead, and crash into three parked vehicles. A review of AVL check shows the RMP which was closest to the Mr. [REDACTED] vehicle was travelling at 16 MPH about a block away, immediately prior to arriving at the accident location. Videos obtained from the travelling route and incident location show Mr. [REDACTED] vehicle crash into the parked vehicles, the driver get out 15 seconds later and run away from the scene. Mr. [REDACTED] unable to walk, gets out of the vehicle and lies on the sidewalk. The first RMP arrives at the location of the accident 35 seconds after the accident and the second RMP arrives to the accident location 15 seconds later. The officers did not activate their turret lights, utilize sirens, or engage in a vehicle pursuit. The subject officers were interviewed and stated that they did not want to pursue the vehicle because of the risk involved. Based on the AVL checks and videos obtained, it is clear that the officers did not engage in a vehicle pursuit. Therefore, the investigation revealed that PO Gnanaraj did not engage in a vehicle pursuit. As such, On Duty Traffic Incident- Vehicle Pursuit-Other (Traffic- Violation Dept. Traffic Rules/Procs) will be closed as Unfounded.
Fail to Prepare Report - TRI Report	Unfounded	2019/05/21	On August 27, 2018, Complainant [REDACTED] was in a vehicle that crashed into three parked cars and his leg was injured during the crash. He was interviewed twice by the investigating officer. On both occasions, Mr. [REDACTED] made no allegation of force against the subject officer. A review of AVL check shows the RMP which was closest to Mr. [REDACTED] vehicle was travelling at 16 MPH about a block away, immediately prior to arriving at the accident location. Videos obtained from the travelling route and incident location show Mr. [REDACTED] vehicle crash into the parked vehicles, the driver got out 15 seconds later and run away from the scene. Mr. [REDACTED] unable to walk, gets out of the vehicle and lies on the sidewalk. The first RMP arrives at the location of the accident 35 seconds later and the second RMP arrives at the accident location 15 seconds later. This investigation disclosed that Mr. [REDACTED] sustained his leg injury from a vehicle accident prior to police arrival. Mr. [REDACTED] injury was not a result of any police action. Therefore, the officers were not required to prepare a TRI. As such, the allegation of Fail to Prepare Report-TRI Report will be closed as UNFOUNDED.
