Case Summary

This case contains an allegation of a fractured wrist.

On an unknown date, T ■■■ H ■■■ filed this complaint on behalf of herself, C ■■■ C ■■■ and unidentified individuals with 311. The complaint was forwarded to IAB on August 28, 2017 generating log #17-33136 and was subsequently received by the CCRB on September 5, 2017.

The undersigned investigator received the case on September 6, 2017. On the same day, a first phone call was placed to Ms. H ■■■ phone number listed in the IAB log. She confirmed her contact information and was scheduled for an in-person interview for September 13, 2017. On September 7 and September 11, 2017, an appointment reminder letter and text message was sent to Ms. H ■■■ respectively. On September 11, 2017, Ms. H ■■■ called the undersigned without leaving a voice message. On the day of her scheduled appointment, Ms. H ■■■ failed to appear at the CCRB without previously contacting the undersigned to cancel or reschedule. Three phone calls were placed to and voice messages left for Ms. H ■■■ between September 13 and September 18, 2017. On September 20, 2017, a fifth phone call was placed to Ms. H ■■■ during which her number appeared to be restricted. During the sixth phone call placed to Ms. H ■■■ on September 22, 2017, she stated the undersigned had been calling her at the wrong time and requested to be contacted at 12:00 pm during her lunch break. The undersigned called Ms. H ■■■ at the requested time and left a voice message. Two additional phone calls were placed to and voice messages left for Ms. H ■■■ on September 25 and 27, 2017; one of the calls was placed during her lunch break and the other before 9:00 a.m. A missed appointment letter and a final please call letter were sent to Ms. H ■■■ on September 13 and 18, 2017.

On September 7, 2017, a first call was made to Mr. C ■■■ to the phone number provided by Ms. H ■■■ during which he confirmed his contact information and elected to consult with his criminal attorney prior to providing a statement to the CCRB by September 11, 2017. On September 12, 2017, during a follow up call, Mr. C ■■■ stated that upon the advice of counsel he reserved his right to provide a statement to the CCRB but wanted to wait for an indefinite period of time. Mr. C ■■■ was asked to inform the undersigned if and when he wished to provide a statement to the CCRB by September 15, 2017. On September 18, 2017, the undersigned placed a third phone call to Mr. C ■■■ and requested him to contact his criminal attorney and find out how long they wanted to wait. Mr. C ■■■ agreed to do so. September 20, 2017, during a fourth phone call, Mr. C ■■■ related to the undersigned that he was advised by his criminal attorney to wait between 14 and 30 days prior to providing a statement to the CCRB. Mr. C ■■■ was advised that if a verified statement were obtained from Ms. H ■■■ the investigation could move forward without his statement. On October 2, 2017, a fifth call was placed to Mr. C ■■■ his voice mail box was full and the undersigned sent him a text message notification offered by his cell phone provider. On October 6, 2017, following the undersigned's sixth call, Mr. C ■■■ reached out to the investigator and stated he wanted to check with his criminal attorney again since 14 days had passed. He requested to be contacted on October 10, 2017. On October 10, 2017, a seventh phone call was placed to Mr. C ■■■ and his voice mail box remained full; the undersigned sent him a text message notification provided by his cell phone carrier. Three please call letters were sent to Mr. C ■■■ between October 3 and October 16, 2017.

The rest of the victims were never identified either by Ms. H [REDACTED] or Mr. C [REDACTED] therefore, no contact information was located for them. Searches of the Department of Correction for New York City and New York State databases conducted on October 25, 2017 confirmed neither Ms. H [REDACTED] nor Mr. C [REDACTED] is incarcerated. As of October 25, 2017, none of the letters sent to Ms. H [REDACTED] and Mr. C [REDACTED] were returned by USPS, and they have not contacted the CCRB. In light of the above, it is recommended that the allegations in the case be closed as complainant uncooperative.
