Case Summary

On June 9, 2020, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) filed this case with the CCRB via the website.

At approximately 9:50 p.m on June 02, 2020, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were marching with protesters in the vicinity of East 14th Street and 5th Avenue in Manhattan, when officers started walking towards the protesters and making arrests. § 87(2)(b) soon saw that § 87(2)(b) was being handcuffed by Sergeant Omar Velez of the 13th Precinct. § 87(2)(b) took his phone out to record and ran towards § 87(2)(b) and got approximately three feet from her, when an officer allegedly yelled at him to “Get on the ground motherfucker!” (Allegation A: Discourtesy: Word: § 87(2)(g) This officer then allegedly struck § 87(2)(b) on the top of the head with his baton causing § 87(2)(b) to fall. As he was falling, the officer allegedly hit him with his baton again, this time on his right bicep (Allegation B: Force: Nightstick as club: § 87(2)(g) After falling, § 87(2)(b) was on the ground on his stomach. The same officer that struck him then allegedly placed a lot of pressure on § 87(2)(b)s back with his knee (Allegation C: Force: Physical Force: § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(b) asked him if he was free to go repeatedly because he was not sure if he was being arrested and the officer allegedly put more pressure into the middle of § 87(2)(b)s back and said, “Stay on the fucking ground,” (Also Allegation A and Allegation C). This officer then took § 87(2)(b)s phone out of his hand and shoved it in § 87(2)(b)s pocket, which ended the video (Allegation D: Abuse of Authority: Interference with recording: § 87(2)(g) After approximately one minute, the pressure on § 87(2)(b)s back subsided for a moment and it appeared that the officer went somewhere else. Police Officer Nikoy Wallace, of the 13th Precinct, then allegedly put his knee on § 87(2)(b)s back and handcuffed him. § 87(2)(b) yelled that he was not resisting, and PO Wallace allegedly used his knee to put more pressure on § 87(2)(b)s back for approximately three minutes, even though § 87(2)(b)s body was limp (Allegation E: Force: Physical Force: § 87(2)(g) At around this time, officers directed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) onto a sidewalk and allegedly stood around them and two other individuals (Allegation F, Allegation G, Allegation H: Abuse of Authority: Stop: § 87(2)(g) before letting them walk away minutes later. An unidentified officer and PO Wallace then walked § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) over to the middle of the intersection of 14th Street and 5th Avenue where arrested protesters were gathered. As they got to this area, the unidentified officer said, “sit on the fucking floor” to § 87(2)(b) and seated him on the ground by pushing on his shoulder and moving his leg forward using his foot (Also Allegation A and Allegation I: Force: Physical Force: § 87(2)(g) This officer then grabbed § 87(2)(b)s arm and pushed her to the ground (Allegation J: Force: Physical Force: § 87(2)(g) while saying, “sit down and shut the fuck up,” (Allegation K: Discourtesy: An officer spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were brought to Brooklyn Central Bookings and eventually were released with summonses for violating the Mayor’s curfew.

The investigation obtained cell phone footage taken by § 87(2)(b) during this incident (Board Review 01, summarized in Board Review 02). § 87(2)(b) also provided pictures of the bruising he sustained from this incident (Board Reviews 03-09). The investigation also obtained BWC covering the incident location (Board Reviews 10-29, summarized in Board Reviews 30-49). Three of these videos (From Police Officer Vincent Cuomo and Police Officer James Arenella, both of the 7th Precinct) captured Allegations I and J (Board Reviews 10 and 11). The investigation also obtained seven videos from handheld TARU operators (Board Reviews 50-56, summarized in Board Reviews 57-63). These did not capture the specific allegations pertaining to this case. There was no relevant TARU pole or LMSI footage. The investigation also obtained surveillance video from the New School (Board Review 64, summarized in Board Review 65). This video did not capture specific allegations pertaining to this case.

Allegation J: Force: An officer used physical force against § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b)

Allegation K: Discourtesy: An officer spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b)

Known facts and general descriptions

In his statement (Board Review 66), § 87(2)(b) described running towards § 87(2)(b) as she was being handcuffed by an officer “Valez” with shield 4579 (the investigation determined this was Sergeant Omar Velez of the 13th Precinct, who has since left the NYPD). When § 87(2)(b) got approximately three feet from § 87(2)(b) an officer described by § 87(2)(b) as a white male in his 40s, wearing a white shirt, said, “Get on the ground, motherfucker,” and struck him in the head and arm with a baton. § 87(2)(b) fell and then this same officer used his knee or foot to hold § 87(2)(b) to the ground and said, “stay on the fucking ground.” § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 67) described this officer as an approximately 6’3” tall, white male with a medium, wearing a white shirt. § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 68) and § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 69) were too far from this officer to get a good enough look at him to provide a description. § 87(2)(b) also mentioned that after being arrested, he and § 87(2)(b) chanted for a medic for another injured protester. This allegation was determined to be a duplicate of case number (202004771).

§ 87(2)(b) also stated that after she and § 87(2)(b) were handcuffed and helped up to their feet, PO Wallace grabbed a hold of § 87(2)(b)'s upper arm and walked § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to the intersection of 14th Street and 5th Avenue. When they got to the street slightly east of the fifth avenue intersection, PO Wallace pushed § 87(2)(b) into a sitting position and her knees hit the ground.

The cell phone video provided by § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 01) shows the alleged subject of Allegations A, B, C, and D (according to § 87(2)(b) at the 1 second mark. Deputy Inspector Steven Hellman, of the 13th Precinct, is slightly behind this officer’s left side. § 87(2)(b) walks forward a few steps and then turns to his right, where his phone makes contact with Sgt. Velez, who is in the process of handcuffing § 87(2)(b). The video then goes out of focus and it appears that § 87(2)(b) falls to the ground. § 87(2)(b) yells, “Am I free to go?” A voice can be heard saying, “Stay the fuck down.”

§ 87(2)(b) also provided the investigation with two screenshots from his video that capture the subject of Allegations A, B, C, and D officer in slightly better resolution (Board Reviews 73 and 74). In these pictures, the officer can be seen wearing a long-sleeved white shirt and a helmet without a shield number on it. He appears to be a white male with a medium build. No insignia or command collar pins can be seen. Aside from his white shirt and his face, there are no clues as to his identity.

PO Cuomo’s BWC (Board Review 10) captures the point at which arrested protesters are being gathered at the intersection of 14th Street and 5th Avenue. At around the 47 second mark, PO Wallace and an officer in a white shirt are holding § 87(2)(b)'s arms as they walk him to this area. § 87(2)(b) is yelling, "I am not resisting." One of the officers says, "Get on the fucking floor." PO Wallace and the white shirted officer seated § 87(2)(b) on the ground. In the process of doing this, the white shirted officer appears to push § 87(2)(b) into a seated position by his shoulders and § 87(2)(b)'s legs move forward. The officer in the white shirt then grabs § 87(2)(b)'s arm and sits her down on the ground forcefully and says, "Sit down and shut the fuck up." The video is blurry and does not capture many details as to this officer's appearance aside from his long-sleeve white shirt and helmet.

PO Arenella's BWC (Board Review 11) shows the same thing, starting at 52 seconds, though he is positioned behind the officers. This video does not show the officer's face or any other clues as to his identity. At 00:50, the unidentified white shirted officer appears to kick § 87(2)(b)'s legs forward while seating him.

§ 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

BWC and TARU

After receiving negative results from two requests for BWC, the investigation obtained 20 BWC videos in total from officers present in the vicinity of 14th Street and 5th Avenue (Board Reviews 10-29, summarized in Board Reviews 30-49). None of these videos captured § 87(2)(b) getting hit with a baton and aside from the two BWC videos described above, none of the videos captured any of the alleged FADOs.

Multiple officers interviewed stated that they did not activate their BWC after being instructed not to because TARU cameramen were in charge of filming protests. Other misconduct and risk management letters will be recommended as part of case 202004771.

The investigation also obtained seven videos from handheld TARU operators. There was no relevant TARU pole or LMSI footage (Board Reviews 50-56, summarized in Board Reviews 57-63). These did not capture the specific allegations pertaining to this case. There was no relevant TARU pole or LMSI footage.

NYPD Documents Reviewed

§ 87(2)(b)'s and § 87(2)(b)'s arrests were documented in the Mass Arrest Processing Report from the MAPC for June 02, 2020 (Board Review 75), which listed their arrest time as 10:00 pm and their arresting officer as PO Kang. This document listed over 22 civilians arrested for curfew violations in the vicinity of East 14th Street and 5th Avenue at the approximate time of this incident. None of these individuals received other charges and the document did not assist with identifying potential subjects to the allegations associated with this case. The investigation also received the Criminal Court Summons (C-Summons § 87(2)(b) issued to § 87(2)(b) by Police Officer Katlyn Kang for violating the executive curfew order, Administrative Code section 3-108 (Board Review 76). The summons notes the time and place of occurrence as 10:00 PM at 14th Street and Fifth Avenue, and contains the following narrative: "At TPO observed defendant in public violation of mayor's executive order establishing 8:00am-5:00pm curfew." The investigation did not receive a summons for § 87(2)(b).

The investigation received negative results for any TRIs prepared for § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) (Board Review 77) The investigation requested all TRIs prepared for incidents that occurred at the incident location The results showed that a TRI was prepared for an incident at 14th Street and 5th Avenue, but it was unrelated to § 87(2)(b)'s arrest and was prepared for § 87(2)(b) the complainant/victim in CCRB case 202004771 (Board Review 78).

The investigation obtained and reviewed the PBMS detailed roster (Board Review 79), the 6th and 13th Precinct roll calls (Board Reviews 80 and 81), and Event § 87(2)(b) (the event related to the arrests occurring at the incident location) (Board Review 82). These documents did not narrow down possible subject officers given the fact that multiple officers that were not a part of the detail responded to the location and there were numerous officers, from multiple commands, present in the vicinity to be able to use documents to determine possible subjects. There were no unusual occurrence reports prepared for this incident by PBMS (Board Review 106). The investigation checked the MOS photo terminal for pictures of all officers above the rank of Sergeant from the following commands:006, 007, 028, 878 (TBVTF). None of the officers clearly matched the subject based on the photograph in IAs 42 and 43 and § 87(2)(b)'s video (Board Review 107)

Concurrent Investigations

There was no concurrent investigation with IAB for this case. CCRB cases 202003914, 202004002, and 202004771 cover incidents that occurred in the vicinity of 14th Street and 5th Avenue in Manhattan at around the same time as this incident. There were no documents received in these cases that helped identify potential subjects in this case as the investigations were still active per the date of this report.

Ranking Officers

The investigation identified Deputy Inspector Steven Hellman, the commanding officer of the 13th Precinct at the time of this incident, as the highest-ranking officer identified on scene. The investigation also identified him as a possible witness to some of these allegations as he can be seen in the still photograph from § 87(2)(b)'s cell phone video (Board Review 74). The investigation interviewed him on February 05, 2021 (Board Review 83). He was unable to identify the officer in the white shirt that allegedly struck § 87(2)(b) with a baton, used force against him and § 87(2)(b) and spoke discourteously to them. Deputy Inspector Hellman did not recall witnessing any of the allegations pertaining to this case.

The investigation was unable to identify any officers with a higher rank than Deputy Inspector Hellman. He was unsure if he was the highest-ranking officer on scene and described previously being assigned as the incident commander at earlier protests. Deputy Inspector Hellman said that he was given general instructions by unknown higher-ranking officers prior to this incident to arrest anyone violating the curfew. Some of the officers interviewed described receiving instructions from “bosses” or higher-ranking officers, but no chiefs or officers of a higher rank than Deputy Inspector Hellman were identified as being present in the videos reviewed or documents obtained.

Officers interviewed

The investigation interviewed 15 officers identified as being in the vicinity of the incident location.

Sgt. Velez, who was identified as a likely witness to Allegations A, B, C, and D, was on terminal leave when the investigation reached out to his command to schedule an interview. He has since retired.

As mentioned below in Allegation D, PO Wallace provided a statement at the CCRB on August 24, 2020 (Board Review 70). He stated that he did not recognize the alleged subject officer that struck § 87(2)(b) with his baton when shown the two photographs of him. He also stated that he did not observe any officers strike § 87(2)(b) with a baton. He did not observe any officers with their knee on § 87(2)(b)'s back. He did not observe any officers push § 87(2)(b) to the ground. PO Wallace did not hear any officers tell § 87(2)(b) to “Stay on the fucking ground,” and he did not observe any officers take § 87(2)(b)'s cell phone out of his hand. PO Wallace also provided a statement to the CCRB for case 202004002 on September 30, 2020 (Board Review 84). During this interview, the investigation obtained the BWC from PO Cuomo and PO Arenella that shows PO Wallace present for Allegations I and J. After seeing this video, PO Wallace acknowledged that he was present in the video, but he did not know who the officer in the white shirt was and it did not refresh his memory about seeing this incident.

The investigation interviewed Police Officer Katlyn Kang, of the 28th Precinct (Board Review 85). Although she was § 87(2)(b)'s and § 87(2)(b)'s arresting officer, she did not witness their arrests or any of the alleged FADOs. She was unable to identify the subject officer from video or pictures.

The investigation interviewed PO Arenella on September 30, 2020 (Board Review 86) and PO Cuomo on November 17, 2020 (Board Review 87). Both were shown their own BWC footage that captures part of the incident, but neither of them remembered witnessing it at the time. They were unable to identify the subject officer from video or pictures.

The investigation interviewed Lieutenant Salvatore Anselmo of the 7th Precinct on September 29, 2020 (Board Review 88); Police Officer Erica Rivera (Shield 25743) of the 7th Precinct on September 30, 2020 (Board Review 89); Police Officer Kevin Shaw (Shield 795) of the 13th Precinct on November 13, 2020 (Board Review 90); Police Officer Vince Wu (Shield 27185) of the 7th Precinct Detective Squad on November 19, 2020 (Board Review 91); Police Officer Cesar Mejia (03592) of the 7th Precinct on November 25, 2020 (Board Review 92); Police Officer Matthew Biondo (Shield 02915) of the Citywide Vandals Taskforce on January 13, 2021 (Board Review 93); Police officer Matthew Ansbro (Shield 13974) of the Citywide Vandals Taskforce on February 04, 2021 (Board Review 94); Lieutenant Thomas Nostramo of the Citywide Vandals Taskforce on February 23, 2020 (Board Review 95); Police Officer Kristin Goldberg (21948) of the Citywide Vandals Taskforce on February 24, 2021 (Board Review 96); Police Officer Melissa Lento (Shield 4081) of the Citywide Vandals Taskforce on March 02, 2021 (Board Review 97). None of these officers recalled witnessing § 87(2)(b)'s arrest or any of the allegations made by § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) and none of them were able to identify any of the possible subject officers after viewing relevant video and photographs.

Allegation Recitation and Disposition

The video footage that the investigation obtained of this incident did not capture names, commands, or shield numbers of any of the potential subjects, police documentation was insufficient in identifying subjects, and none of the officers interviewed were able to identify any of the subjects or recalled observing the allegations. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation E: Force: Police Officer Nikoy Wallace used physical force against § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) provided a statement over the phone on June 16, 2020 (Board Review 66). He stated that after he was taken to the ground by an unidentified officer, PO Wallace put his knee on § 87(2)(b)'s back and put handcuffs on him. § 87(2)(b) yelled that he was not resisting, and PO Wallace used his knee to put more pressure on § 87(2)(b)'s back and applied this pressure for approximately three minutes, even though § 87(2)(b)'s body was limp.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a statement to the CCRB on June 18, 2020 (Board Review 67), which was generally consistent with § 87(2)(b)'s statement regarding this allegation.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a statement over the phone on July 07, 2020 (Board Review 68) described seeing § 87(2)(b) approximately 20 to 30 feet in front of her, with three officers, she could not clearly see, on top of him. She did not specifically describe seeing an officer with their knee on § 87(2)(b)'s back.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a statement over the phone on July 06, 2020 (Board Review 69) She stated that she observed § 87(2)(b) on the ground surrounded by three officers. One of them, an approximately 5'9" tall black male officer with a medium build had either his foot or knee on § 87(2)(b)'s back.

PO Wallace provided a statement at the CCRB on August 24, 2020 (Board Review 70). He stated that he observed two officers holding § 87(2)(b)'s arms as § 87(2)(b) lay on the ground face down. § 87(2)(b) was pulling his arms away from the officers and yelling something along the lines of, "Why are you detaining me? I know my rights." One of the officers yelled at PO Wallace to, "cuff him." PO Wallace did not recognize either of these officers. One of the officers had a white shirt on and the other was in a standard blue police uniform. Neither officer was putting pressure on § 87(2)(b)'s back. He did not see either officer put their knee or foot on § 87(2)(b)'s back. PO Wallace approached § 87(2)(b) and put his handcuffs on § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) initially struggled by moving his arms, but PO Wallace was able to put the handcuffs on. PO Wallace only touched § 87(2)(b)'s hands and wrists. He did not put his knee or foot on § 87(2)(b)'s back.

None of the BWC footage or other video obtained by the investigation captures this portion of the incident.

§ 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

Allegation F: Abuse of Authority: Officers stopped § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b)

Allegation G: Abuse of Authority: Officers stopped § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b)

Allegation H: Abuse of Authority: Officers stopped individuals.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that they were standing on a sidewalk with § 87(2)(b) and a male and female protester they did not know while 6-8 officers stood around them and held them there for approximately five minutes. The officers eventually spoke amongst each other and then told the four protesters they could go. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) then walked north, away from the intersection.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that she and § 87(2)(b) were standing on a sidewalk when officers behind them ushered them into the road by walking towards them with their batons held horizontally. Other officers that were positioned nearby, told these officers to let § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) leave, which they did.

Mayor Bill De Blasio issued Emergency Executive Order No. 118 on June 02, 2020, which ordered a curfew from 8:00 pm on June 02, 2020 until 5:00 am on June 03, 2020. During this time, no persons (aside from police officers, peace officers, firefighters, first responders, EMTs, individuals travelling to and from essential work and performing essential work, people experiencing homelessness and without access to a viable shelter, and individuals seeking medical treatment or medical supplies) were allowed to be in public. Any person that knowingly violated the provisions of this order was guilty of a Class B misdemeanor (Board Review 71).

According to NYC Finest Message 37644505, if MOS observe a person violating the curfew, a C-Summons may be issued for Admin Code 3-108, Violating a Mayoral Emergency Order (Board Review 72).
