Case Summary

On August 17, 2021, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint online via the CCRB website. The undersigned received the case on the same date.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a contact number, home address, and an email address when they initially filed this complaint. Between August 17 and September 13, 2021, the undersigned called the number provided four times. During the first three calls, an automated message stated that the caller was either unavailable or the line was out of service and to call again later. The undersigned was unable to leave any voice messages. During the fourth call, the line did not ring, and an automated message stated that the line was no longer in service. The undersigned was unable to leave a voice message. The undersigned did not call a fifth time because the line was not in service.

Between August 17 and August 27, 2021, the undersigned sent three please call emails to § 87(2)(b) s provided email address. On August 23, 2021, § 87(2)(b) responded via email and stated that they were having issues with phone calls, that they would try to borrow a friend's phone to call the undersigned that week, and that they were only able to randomly check emails for the time being. The undersigned did not receive any calls from § 87(2)(b) and the two additional emails sent to them remained unanswered. The undersigned was unable to send letters to § 87(2)(b) s home address due to the Covid-19 pandemic limitations.

On August 19, 2021, LexisNexis and CLEAR database searches did not yield any additional contact information for § 87(2)(b). The CLEAR search revealed that the contact number provided by § 87(2)(b) was connected to a hair salon. Searches of CTS and BADS databases did not reveal any additional contact information for § 87(2)(b).

On September 13, 2021, searches of the NYC Department of Correction Inmate Lookup System and the NYS Department of Corrections and Community Supervision database revealed that § 87(2)(b) was not incarcerated during the contact attempts.
