DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York Police Department has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about June 24, 2005, Loutrina Mathelier-Potter committed the violation Domestic Endangering Welfare of a Child. This matter arose after Officer Mathelier-Potter reported to a superior officer that she had been notified that she was the subject of a Child Abuse or Neglect case concerning her son. A sergeant spoke to the child's father who reported noticing a bruise on his son's buttocks area when he went to give him a bath. The father told the sergeant that he reported the matter to the Administration for Child Services when the son stated that Officer Mathelier's boyfriend (who was an Auxiliary police officer) had spanked him.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
