A.POM Matthew Peters	Abuse: PO Matthew Peters threatened to issue summons to § 87(2)(b)

Synopsis

§ 87(2)(b) called this agency on 12/16/05 to complain about an incident that took place earlier that day at approximately 5:10 PM. He stated he was circling the block to look for parking at 112th Street in Queens. He saw someone pulling out and proceeded to pull up near the spot in order to park as soon as the other car vacated the spot. PO Matthew Peters of the 106th Precinct pulled up behind him and blocked him in. PO Peters began writing a summons to § 87(2)(b) for double parking. § 87(2)(b) explained to PO Peters that he was about to park in the spot, but PO Peters was not listening to him. § 87(2)(b) exited his car and approached the patrol car where PO Brenda Bratcher of the 106th precinct was, and he began explaining the situation to her. PO Peters told § 87(2)(b) to “get the hell away from the car” or he would issue him a summons for disorderly conduct. § 87(2)(b) received a parking summons from PO Peters.

§ 87(2)(b) declined to mediate his complaint on 12/27/05, opting to have his case investigated instead. § 87(2)(b) rescheduled an appointment set for 1/3/06, but then missed two subsequent appointments on 2/6/06 and 2/27/06. He has not attempted to contact this agency in order to reschedule. It § 87(2)(g)
