OFFICER: Rodrigo CABALLERO
TAX NUMBER: 915385

DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated allegations that, on December 16, 1999, Rodrigo Caballero unlawfully used force—with a motor vehicle in that, while off duty and in the vicinity of Warren Street and Church Street in Manhattan, Rodrigo Caballero struck a civilian with his personal automobile while attempting to park his car. The civilian had informed him that he was holding the parking space for a truck driver making a delivery. The civilian stated that he was not injured as a result of this action. Rodrigo Caballero told the civilian that he was a police officer with a badge and that he had only an hour for lunch. The investigation determined that Rodrigo Caballero was not, in fact, working on that date. Rodrigo Caballero had an NYPD plaque in the front window of his car while he parked in a No Standing area reserved for trucks and went into a restaurant. The CCRB investigation concluded that Rodrigo Caballero was not credible in his testimony to CCRB about the incident, citing certain inconsistencies in his account. The CCRB recommended Charges & Specifications be brought against Rodrigo Caballero. Subsequently, the New York City Police Department deemed substantiated, upon his pleas of guilty, allegations that, on or about December 16, 1999, while off duty, Rodrigo Caballero (i) did wrongfully and without just cause use excessive force against another person; and (ii) after having identified himself as a police officer to a civilian, refused to display his shield to the civilian.
2. CCRB has noted as misconduct that, on December 16, 1999, Rodrigo Caballero failed to prepare a stop and frisk report as required.
