A.SGT Kevin Blake	Abuse: Sgt. Kevin Blake entered and searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) Santamauro filed this complaint via the CCRB online website, based on information provided to him by an individual named § 87(2)(b) during the course of this investigation. The CCRB attempted to contact § 87(2)(b) by phone and mail, but was unable to reach him.

In his sworn statement, but not in his online complaint, § 87(2)(b) stated that he was wanted by the NYPD in connection with multiple violations of a restraining order, and had been visited by members of the Department of Homeland Security in connection with his blogging about the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. He moved to North Carolina, and lent his Manhattan apartment to § 87(2)(b) a former lawyer who had been disbarred for fraud, in exchange for § 87(2)(b)'s legal advice. However, § 87(2)(b) eventually just stole his possessions and moved away. On May 29, 2014, at approximately 8:22 a.m., § 87(2)(b) texted § 87(2)(b) that Sgt. Kevin Blake of the 19th Precinct Detective Squad, followed by two unidentified detectives, whose identities Sgt. Blake could not recall, had rung the apartment buzzer, stated that he was from a moving company, and rushed into the apartment the moment § 87(2)(b) opened the door. (Allegation A) Sgt. Blake allegedly asked § 87(2)(b) if § 87(2)(b) was there, and asked about § 87(2)(b)'s books on Nazism, before leaving because § 87(2)(b) was not there.

§ 87(2)(g)

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

Mediation was not offered to § 87(2)(b) since he indicated that he does not intend to return to New York City.

[§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

This is the first complaint filed by § 87(2)(b)

Sgt. Blake has been a member of the service for twelve years and there are no substantiated complaints against him § 87(2)(g)

Potential Issues

§ 87(2)(g) did not witness the incident, and § 87(2)(b) could not be contacted. During the course of the investigation, § 87(2)(g) sent the undersigned investigator emails indicating possible emotional instability and a bias against law enforcement. The emails contained statements such as “fuck the Arabs, “fucking Jews,” the “court is corrupt along with the divorce mafia,” and “that Jewish agenda to dilute the Aryan race.”

Findings and Recommendations

Explanation of Subject Officer Identification

Sgt. Blake confirmed his involvement in this incident.
