DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated allegations of “PD ITEM DISPLAYS W/O AUTH, TRAFFIC INCIDENT OTHER AND OTHER DEPT RULES/PROCEDURES VIOLATION,” for Christopher Roca in connection with an incident that occurred on October 25, 2016. On that date, Christopher Roca placed his memo book and a piece of paper with his telephone number on it in the window of his car. He was issued a ticket by a traffic agent for failure to display a munimeter receipt.
2. As of February 10, 2021, the New York Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has pending allegations of Improper use of a body worn camera (Other misconduct) and Physical force for Christopher Roca in connection with an incident that occurred on January 21, 2020.
3. The New York City Police Department has deemed substantiated allegations that Christopher Roca, (1) between on or about November 1, 2020, and on or about November 15, 2020, became aware of a sexual assault allegation against a family member who was also a police officer and failed to notify the Department of the allegation; and (2) on July 4, 2019, ran a search, using the NYPD database, for personal reasons. During an official department interview, Christopher Roca admitted he had no work-related reason for the database search.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
