Case Summary

On March 27, 2020, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint through the CCRB Call Processing System.

On March 27, 2020, at approximately 1:10 p.m., in front of the 101st Precinct stationhouse, § 87(2)(b) approached the gate of the stationhouse parking lot because she saw her son's vehicle inside. When the gate was lifted partially, § 87(2)(b) bent down and questioned PO Numael Amador of the 101st Precinct about the vehicle. PO Amador approached § 87(2)(b) grabbed her by the shoulders, and moved her further down the sidewalk and away from the gate (Allegation A - Force: Physical Force, § 87(2)(g)).

§ 87(2)(b) did not receive a summons and was not arrested as a result of this incident. § 87(2)(b) received medical treatment from Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs) at the incident location.

Body-worn camera (BWC) of this incident was obtained (Board Review 03-07) and summarized (Board Review 11-15).

101st Precinct stationhouse surveillance footage was obtained from IAB (Board Review 16-20) and summarized (Board Review 21-25).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Force: Police Officer Numael Amador used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

In § 87(2)(b) statement to the CCRB (Board Review 01), she stated that she went to the 101st Precinct stationhouse because she received a call from her niece informing her that § 87(2)(b) son had been arrested. Once she had arrived at the stationhouse, she saw her son's vehicle inside the stationhouse garage. She stated that she stood in front of the stationhouse garage until its gate was lifted in order to permit two officers to enter. During this time, § 87(2)(b) bent over to see under the gate, did not enter the garage, and asked PO Amador, who was inside, why her son's vehicle was inside the garage. PO Amador did not answer, walked toward § 87(2)(b) grabbed her by both of her shoulders, and shook her back and forth while moving her away from the gate. § 87(2)(b) sustained contusions on both arms from this action. PO Amador held onto § 87(2)(b) for approximately one minute. § 87(2)(b) requested that officers summon an ambulance for her, which they did. EMTs treated § 87(2)(b) inside the ambulance with icepacks on her shoulders.

§ 87(2)(b) a witness and acquaintance of § 87(2)(b) stated to the CCRB (Board Review 02) that from across the street from the 101st Precinct stationhouse, she saw § 87(2)(b) bent over in front of the stationhouse garage door. § 87(2)(b) did not see § 87(2)(b) attempt to enter the garage at any time. § 87(2)(b) then stood upright and asked PO Amador a question. PO Amador approached § 87(2)(b) grabbed her under her arm using only one hand, and lifted her off her feet. He then moved § 87(2)(b) toward the right side of the gate.

In PO Amador's statement to the CCRB (Board Review 08), he stated that he stood outside of the garage because a vehicle inside the garage contained evidence, a loaded firearm, making the garage a crime scene. PO Amador noticed § 87(2)(b) in front of the garage and informed her two times that she could not stay there. When members of the NYPD's Evidence Collection Team arrived, § 87(2)(b) Amador walked towards and attempted to enter the garage. PO Amador walked forward and held § 87(2)(b) with one arm and guided her toward the front of the stationhouse. PO Amador stated that he only held § 87(2)(b) for approximately two to three steps, and immediately walked back toward the garage.

No documents were obtained regarding § 87(2)(b) injuries.

The BWC footage obtained in this case depicts § 87(2)(b) interacting with officers after the alleged force, and none of the multiple angles of stationhouse footage obtained in this case appeared to depict § 87(2)(b) PO Amador, or the stationhouse garage.
